Notorious Gossip

The granary keeper was away for the day, but his wife was very eager to be helpful, and so offered to carry out the sale of a bushel of buckwheat which a customer requested.

Together they went to the bin, and she proceeded to measure out the grain. She poured in two peck measures and was about to tie up the sack when the jovial farmer interrupted. "B-but four pecks made a bushel, marm."

"Oh, do they?" she replied. "You see, I never had any experience measuring grain before I was married. I always taught school."

Artist: "You'd be surprised to know how much time was spent on this painting."

Friend: "Yes, I've heard that people stand here by the hour trying to make out what it represents."

"Now," said the schoolteacher, "give me a definition of space."

Junior stood up, flustered and red. "Space," he began, "is where there is nothing. I can't explain it exactly, but I have it in my head all right."

They stood by the garden gate bathed in moonlight. "Belle," he whispered huskily, "we've been walking out together for six years now, you and I."

"That we have, Will," was the subdued reply.

"And," the man continued, "we've kind of got to know one another, to trust each other, ain't we?"

"O' course we have, Will," came the thrilled response.

"Well," he gulped, "will you—will you lend me my bus fare home? I'm broke."

A customer entered the shop of a cockney bookseller and requested a copy of "Omar Khayyam."

"Sorry, sir," replied the shopkeeper. "We have 'Is Billard' and 'Is 'Hodyssey,' but we 'aveint' 'Is 'Khayyam."

LIFT STRIKE DEFIANCE

"Big Push" Only
Just Starting

New York, Mar. 10.

The leader of the New York lift operators' strike to-day called out the workers in 900 additional buildings in the vital area of the Grand Central Station, following the owners' rejection of Mayor La Guardia's plan for the settlement of the disagreement over wages.

The strikers' leader, Mr. Bambrick, declared the "big push" was only starting and claimed 7,000 workers had answered to-day's summons and that 4,200 buildings were now affected throughout the city. Police say this claim is exaggerated.

The Secretary of the Owners' Association declares the owners were ready to accept any reasonable agreement tending to eliminate abuses, but the union was no longer fighting for the men but for power to crush the city at its will.

MEETING IN PARIS

Locarno Conference
Curiosity

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Paris, Mar. 10.

The Paris public, which was burning with curiosity to learn what decisions were arrived at by the conference of the Locarno Powers, was disappointed when the following communiqué in carefully guarded language, studiously avoiding any mention of the course taken at the discussions, was issued early this afternoon.

The communiqué reads: "The representatives of the Locarno Powers were assembled this morning at 10.30 in the Foreign Ministry. Great Britain was represented by the Foreign Secretary Mr. Anthony Eden, Lord Halifax and Sir George Clerk. Italy by Ambassador Cerruti, Belgium by Premier Van Zeeland and Count Kerckhove, France by the Foreign Minister, M. Flandin and the League of Nations, by Minister Paul-Boncour.

In opening the session, the Foreign Minister welcomed the delegates of the signatory and guarantor powers, pointing out that the object of the conference was only to exchange views and arrive at a clear understanding of the situation, but that there was no agenda and that no decisions would be taken before the League Council had met.

After the procedure had thus been established, various delegates expressed their views. This exchange of opinion will be continued perhaps this evening in Paris, but in any case in Geneva where the delegates will meet again tomorrow.

CLASH OF OPINION?

No further details as to what took place at this momentous conference were available since all the delegates are maintaining the greatest reserve. It is only known that Sir George Clerk left the meeting in order to telephone London, from which the conclusion drawn here is that the discussions have revealed considerable differences of opinion, which is further substantiated by the careful wording of the official communiqué.

In the diplomatic circles, it is surmised that Belgium will adopt the same attitude as France, namely to refrain from entering into negotiations with Germany till the demilitarized zone is evacuated again though neither France nor Belgium, it is stated, will formulate a direct demand for evacuation. England, it is expected will advocate a formal establishment by the League of the breach of the Locarno Treaty, and press for an early commencement of the negotiations with the German Government.

The latter question is considered certainly to form the main point at issue since Mr. Eden's speech in the House of Commons had greatly disappointed the French Government supporters, though many voices are also to be heard expressing the view that M. Sarraut had been somewhat hasty in taking such an uncompromising attitude in his broadcast speech.

STAPLES SURPRISES

TASTY CHICKEN DISHES

Poultry dishes demand perfect cooking. Enrich the delicate taste of chicken by adding a few dashes of Maggi's seasoning to the gravy, sauce or stuffing.

BRUNSWICK STEW

- 1 fowl
- 1 shin of veal or 1 shin of beef
- 1 pound bacon
- 5 medium-sized onions
- 1 tablespoon salt
- 1 teaspoon pepper
- 2 cups lima beans
- 2 cups green corn or 1 large can corn
- 2 cups chopped fresh tomatoes or 1 can tomatoes
- 6 small white potatoes

Several dashes of seasoning
Dress, clean and cut up fowl. Cut up beef or veal as for stewing. Place in pot and cover with boiling water. Fry 1 pound of bacon until crisp and crumble bacon into pot with other two ingredients. Add onions salt and pepper. Cover and cook slowly for two hours then add lima beans, corn and tomatoes. Cook another hour. Half hour before cooking is finished add potatoes. Several dashes of seasoning added when stew is ready to serve will enhance the natural delicious taste of the stew.

ROAST CHICKEN

Dress, clean, stuff and truss a chicken. Rub entire surface with salt and spread legs and breast with three tablespoons butter. Place in a roasting pan. Drudge bottom of pan with flour and place in a hot oven. When flour is well browned reduce heat and bake fifteen minutes with one quarter cup butter melted in two-thirds cup boiling water. During cooking turn chicken frequently so that it may brown evenly. A four pound chicken will require one and one-half hours to roast.

ORANGE CREAMS

Orange creams are always a favourite, and can be made to look attractive if served in halves of orange skins and decorated with slices of crystallised orange and whipped cream. Put the juice of two large oranges, the finely grated rind of one, the juice of half a lemon, and three ounces of castor sugar into a double saucepan, stir, add the well-beaten yolks of two eggs, and stir over a gentle heat until it thickens. Pour into a basin to cool. Soak a quarter of an ounce of gelatine in half a teacupful of water. Dissolve it over a low heat, but do not let it boil. Add to the orange mixture, stir well, and leave to get cold. When cold and beginning to thicken, fold lightly in the whites of the eggs whisked to a stiff froth. Put the mixture into the orange skins, or paper cases, and decorate when set.

JELLIED RABBIT

Here is an appetising dish for Sunday night supper. Cut up a rabbit into joints, and cut into pieces half a pound of fat bacon, ham, or pork. Just cover with water, add pepper, salt, a blade of mace, a few peppercorns, a little parsley and a quarter of a teacupful of celery seed. These seasonings are best tied in a piece of muslin so that they can easily be removed. Cover the pan or casserole, and simmer gently until the meat comes easily from the bones; cut it up, carefully removing all bones. Dissolve three-quarters of an ounce of gelatine in a pint of the gravy, pour over the meat, and put all into a wetted mould. Turn out when set. Serve with celery salad made by cutting the heart of a celery into thin strips and covering with thick mayonnaise.

A GOOD SWEET PICKLE

The ingredients include any variety of vegetables suitable for pickling, such as French and runner beans, cauliflower, small onions, or large sliced cucumbers, or gherkins, radishes, green tomatoes, green peppers, red cabbage, a little sliced mango if possible, a few slices of angelica root, and a piece of preserved ginger root. (The three latter are not absolutely necessary, but much improve this pickle.)

One gallon malt vinegar, 1 lb. mustard, 1 lb. turmeric, 2 ozs. curry powder or ground curry stuffs, a handful of salt, 1 teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, 1 cupful horse-radish, grated, 1 lb. Demerara sugar, 1 large green pepper sliced and 3 small red peppers are also needed.

Slice or dice up the vegetables, they should be cut up quite small. Put them in a large pan, add the salt, taking care that this is evenly distributed, and pour over just sufficient cold water to cover. Let them steep in this for 24 hours, then drain well.

Heat the vinegar to boiling point, and scald them with this, then drain off the vinegar and return it to the preserving pan. (Do not put in the vegetables.)

Stir in the sugar until dissolved. Mix all the dry ingredients with a little cold vinegar, the curry powder, mustard, and so on, then stir the hot vinegar into this paste, return it to the pan, and let all boil for three minutes, stirring carefully. (If desired, add more sugar, as the sweet flavour is mainly a matter of taste, and more sugar may be added at this point.)

Let the liquid cool slightly, then pour it over the diced vegetables, to which the sliced peppers have been added. Let it cool before storing in jars. It can be used in a month's time, but improves by keeping.

GRAPEFRUIT SALAD

- 1 1/2 cups diced grapefruit
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon paprika
- 1/2 teaspoon celery seed
- 4 tablespoons salad oil
- 2 tablespoons vinegar

Chill grapefruit, mix and chill rest of ingredients. Pour over grapefruit arranged on lettuce. Serve immediately.

TASTY DISHES

MAZETTI

- Brown
- 1 pound ground veal and
- 1 pound ground lean pork in a little butter. Simmer
- 1 chopped green pepper,
- 1 chopped stock of celery, and
- 1/2 chopped large onion together in a little butter till tender. Drop
- 1 pound egg noodles in boiling water and boil five minutes. Mix all of the above ingredients together with
- 2 cans tomato soup and
- 1 small can mushrooms, and
- Salt and pepper to taste. Turn into a baking dish and sprinkle top with
- 1 pound Old English cheese. Bake for 45 minutes in a moderate oven 350°F.

TWENTY-FOUR HOUR SALAD

- Dice
- 1 large can of sliced pineapple,
- 24 marshmallows, and
- 1 small bottle maraschino cherries. Mix with
- 1 pound small white seedless grapes. (A can of white cherries can be substituted). Whip
- 2 lemons,
- 4 level tablespoons sugar, and
- 1 cup plain cream. When cold, add the plain whipped cream. Pour over the fruit. Let stand in the refrigerator for 24 hours. When serving, sprinkle top with crushed almonds.

FOR YOUR NOTE BOOK

MARSHMALLOW DELIGHT

The following is the favourite recipe for the boys and girls who come to visit our young folks:

Mix together

- 1 cup orange pulp and juice and
- 1 cup marshmallow cut up. Add
- 1/2 cup granulated sugar. Let stand about two hours. Whip stiffly
- 1 pint cream and fold in above mixture. Chill and serve.

CARROT PIE

Mix together:

- 1 tablespoon raw grated carrots
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 1/2 cups milk
- Yolks of 2 eggs, saving whites for the top
- a little nutmeg

Butter, the size of a walnut. Cook on top of the stove and then fill baked pie crust. Beat the whites of the eggs, add sugar, spread over pie, set in oven to brown.

CURRENT BISCUITS

- 1 pint flour
- 5 teaspoons sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon butter
- 1 cup cleaned currants. Beat
- 1 egg in milk and add enough to make a soft a soft dough. Bake in a hot oven 400 degrees F. 10 to 15 minutes. Serve warm with jam or marmalade.

CHEESE OMELET

- 2 tablespoons butter
- 3 eggs yolks
- 2 tablespoons catsup
- 1/2 cup cheese, cut fine
- 3 egg whites, beaten
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons cold water

Melt butter in frying pan; when hot add rest of ingredients which have been lightly combined. Cook slowly until omelet is well "puffed" and brown underneath. Carefully turn half-over, holding in place 2 minutes with fork. Turn onto warm platter and garnish with parsley.

GERMAN COFFEE CAKE

- Sift together
- 2 1/2 cups flour,
- 3 tablespoons sugar,
- 2 teaspoons baking powder, and
- 1 level teaspoon salt. Work in with the fingers.
- 1 rounding tablespoon butter. Beat in a cup
- 1 egg and add to it enough
- Milk to measure 1 1/2 cups. Mix all together. Put batter in greased cake pan. Brush the top lightly with melted butter. Sprinkle with brown sugar and cinnamon. Bake in moderate oven 350°F. for about 20 minutes.

EGG CROQUETTES

- Make a very thick white sauce of
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 4 tablespoons flour
- 1 cup milk. Allow this to cool and then add
- 6 coarsely chopped hard boiled eggs
- 3 strips chopped crisp bacon.
- 1 teaspoon finely chopped onion
- 2 tablespoons chopped green pepper. Seasoning to taste. Form into small balls and roll in beaten egg and bread crumbs and fry in deep fat 385°F. until brown. Lettuce cooked ham may be used instead of bacon. Serve four.

Neglect of COMMON ILLS MAY MEAN days of suffering

WHOLE days of suffering, and in many cases weeks of anxiety and pain can be definitely avoided by the simple action of taking 'ASPRO'. When people realise what a wonderful medicine 'ASPRO' is—how it soothes pain—how it reduces feverishness, and how, after ingestion in the system, being a solvent of uric acid—an internal antiseptic—an anti-pyretic or fever reducer—and a powerful germicide, it strikes at the cause of numerous complaints, then much suffering will be avoided—much illness prevented.

LIPTON'S TEA HINTS

There is nothing easier than to make tea well—except to make it badly. So here are some hints on how to make the best of it.

BUYING TEA. Tea is the cheapest and most economical drink in the world. From one pound of good tea you can brew as many as 2-3 cups. And it pays in the long run to buy good tea because it is more economical to use, and the difference between the cost of one cup of poor tea and one cup of good tea is so infinitesimally small as not to matter. But there is all the difference in the flavour and it is the flavour that is really the luxury that everyone can now afford.

STORE TEA IN AN AIR-TIGHT CONTAINER. Tea loses its flavour if it is exposed to the air for long, especially in a moist climate. It ought to be kept in a caddy, or in a glass jar with a screw top, or in clean tin.

USE THE RIGHT KIND OF TEA-POT Nothing compares with an ordinary brown earthenware tea-pot for making good tea. This should be carefully cleaned, not just rinsed, to remove all stains and dried after use. When cleaning don't forget the spout; a small brush will come in handy for this.

MEASURE THE QUANTITY OF TEA CAREFULLY. One teacupful per person and one for the pot is a sound old-fashioned rule that has never been beaten. But if good tea is used there is no need to allow "one for the pot," unless very strong tea is wanted, for good tea is more economical than cheap tea.

USE ONLY FRESHLY BOILED WATER. Take care to warm the pot thoroughly before putting in the tea. Then pour on freshly boiled water—not water that has been allowed to simmer. Better tea will be made if the kettle is kept free from the lime or chalk deposits of hard water.

ALLOW FOUR MINUTES FOR INFUSION. Pour freshly boiled water on to the leaves until the tea-pot is full, but don't pour out the tea into cups until you have allowed it to stand for at least four minutes. The lid, of course, should be put back as soon as the water is poured into the pot, and then the whole should be covered with a cosy. Don't forget that tea should never be allowed to "steep." If it is allowed to stand too long tea loses all its virtue and its flavour.

MRS. MOLLISON'S DENIAL

There appears to be some mystery concerning the future plans of Mrs. Amy Mollison, the woman, Mr. J. A. Mollison, on arrival at Sydney, stated that his wife would shortly make an attempt, says Reuter, on the solo flight record to Australia. Mrs. Mollison, interviewed in London last night, said: "That is news to me. At the moment I have no plans at all for another flight to Australia, and I am not contemplating any such flight."

"Look here," said the commercial traveler to the small-town hotel keeper, "don't you know that roller towels in hotels have been prohibited in this state for three years?" "Sure," replied the hotel keeper, "but that towel was put up before the law was passed."

Down-to-earth drama of vital human emotions in a setting as robust as it is new.
Jean Harlow and Spencer Tracy as a new romantic team.
A supporting cast headed by the screen's first-ranking comedienne—Una Merkel, and Joseph Calleia of "Public Enemy" fame.
A group of outstanding players, including Victor Killian, Mickey Rooney, J. Farrell MacDonald, Juanita Quigley, Paul Hurst, Vince Barnett, Dorothy Appleby and Judith Wood.
"Riffraff" is a story of a guy and his gal—elemental, vital, earthy people. They live and work on the waterfront, and that is their world. What they lack in book education they make up in wisdom, taught in the world's greatest school—the streets.

THE IRISH IN US
At The Queen's.

Pat O'Brien, who plays the part of a policeman in the Warner Bros. production, "The Irish in Us," now screening at the Queen's Theatre, is "Uncle Pat" to virtually every child in Hollywood. There are several children of motion picture families who claim him as their godfather.
"The Irish in Us" is a hilarious comedy drama, with many tense situations as well as laughs and a glowing romance.
James Cagney plays the role of Danny O'Hara, youngest member of an Irish New York family, who manage broken-down prizefighters. When his newest protégé, Carban McCarthy, a punch-drunk pug who has seen better days, played by Allen Jenkins is unable to go on the night he has been matched with Joe Delaney (Harvey Parry) the middle weight champion in the annual New York police benefit bouts, Cagney substitutes at the last minute. Pat O'Brien and Frank McHugh portray Cagney's older brothers. Mary Gordon is cast as their mother and Olivia de Havilland is the girl.

SOME BRIGHT PLAY
In Yesterday's Tennis
Yesterday's tennis matches again went according to the card. Two of the matches were postponed, one doubles and one singles. E. C. Fincher defeated A. Crawford after Crawford led by 5 games to 2 in the second set. Crawford is one of the most improved players of the past year and he offered no little opposition to "Teddy" Fincher.
Tennis Kwok played some very good tennis to beat W. C. Hung though it must be said that Hung has played better. After taking the first set at 6/3, F. R. Zimmern lost to Lee Wal-tong. This duel was featured by the accurate and effective short volleying of Lee.
The best match of yesterday was the doubles fight between Wong Fuk-nam and K. F. Lau against Lu Tak-cheuk and Lu Tak-lam. Exchanges were fast and the play on both sides was good. The Lu brothers won by 6/4, 14/12. As the score indicates, the match was very even, the winners had a difficult task in clinching the match. The lobbing and overhead work of the Lu brothers were exceptionally fine and accounted for many of their points.
SCORES:
E. C. Fincher beat A. Crawford by 6/2, 7/5.
H. N. Lee v. A. E. P. Guest postponed.
H. Owen Hughes beat Ma Nak-kwong by 8/6, 6/1.
Tennis Kwok beat W. C. Hung by 6/4, 6/2.
Lee Wal-tong beat F. R. Zimmern by 3/6, 8/2, 6/0.
S. A. Gray beat Capt. L. J. Walsh by 8/6, 6/3.
DOUBLES:
Lu Tak-cheuk and Lu Tak-lam beat Wong Fuk-nam and K. F. Lau by 6/4, 14/12. Deane and Divett v. M. W. Lo and M. K. Lo postponed.

"TO BEAT THE BAND"
Hollywood's latest raid on Broadway is represented in "To Beat the Band" RKO Radio's new musical now showing at the Alhambra.
Hugh Herbert, widely known to motion picture audiences, received his theatrical baptism on Broadway, authored several stage plays and was a vaudeville favourite for years.
Co-featured with Herbert in "To Beat the Band" is Helen Broderick, who has long been one of Broadway's favourite comedienne. She was signed for films two years ago, to report when "As Thousands Cheer" closed its New York run. Said run lasted 74 weeks, while studio executives on the West Coast chewed their nails and wildly conjectured whether the thousands back East would ever stop cheering. She finally appeared in her first screen role in "Top Hat".
Eric Blore, who answers to "Here, Hawkins," in "To Beat the Band," was for many years one of England's outstanding stage funsters. He came to America in 1923, and appeared later in numerous New York hits, being called to Hollywood to repeat for the films the success he scored on the stage in "The Gay Divorcee" and later in "Top Hat".
Roger Pryor, son of the noted band leader, is also a former Broadway star and a newcomer to Hollywood. His success in "Moonlight and Pretzels" brought him a film contract.
Making her debut, before the cameras as the romantic lead in "To Beat the Band" is Phyllis Brooks, who won national fame as a model for James Montgomery Flagg, McClelland Barclay, John La Gatta and other artists, and then played in stock in the East before her beauty caught the eye of an RKO Radio scout.

"THE BRIDE COMES HOME"
Claudette Colbert and Fred MacMurray, who met with such wide favour as a light romantic team in their first Paramount picture, "The Gilded Lily," are brought together again in the new comedy-romance, "The Bride Comes Home," commencing at the Queen's Theatre this week-end.
"The Bride Comes Home" is an original story written especially for Miss Colbert by Claude Binyon and Miss Colbert. The Gilded Lily, in that it treats of problems confronting young lovers of to-day, its originality makes it one of the most amusing screen farces of the year.

"ESCAPE ME NEVER"
Elisabeth Bergner came to town last night in "Escape Me Never." She came, we saw, she conquered. The "tiny but much-heralded" Austrian star thrilled a huge audience at the Star Theatre— an audience she held in the magic spell she so subtly weaves with her charm, the strange, haunting beauty of her eyes, her sincerity, and, above all, her matchless artistry.
As Gemma Jones, the tiny lovely wife whom the irresponsible young composer Sebastian Sanger finds wandering about the streets of Venice with her newborn infant and gives shelter, she literally runs the whole gamut of emotions and the result is a performance which tops any film performance in screen history and definitely entitles her to the title of "First Actress of Our Screen."
In the romantic atmosphere of the Dolomites whether the pair have travelled to help Sebastian's brother, Carlo, straighten out a romantic misunderstanding with his aristocratic fiancée, Fenella McLean, Sebastian becomes infatuated with Fenella. Gemma, crushed, takes her baby and bolts for London. Sebastian follows and marries her, but soon takes up his romance with Fenella again, although his wife is working as a

ARMY AND CLUB SHARE SPOILS
Good Hockey Game
A fast game was witnessed at the Club ground yesterday between Club and the Army in a triangular tournament match which ended in a draw of 1 goal all.
It was expected that the Army were going to win fairly comfortably, but they failed miserably and were it not for the excellent goalkeeping of Howlette they would have been defeated by a very large margin.
Howlette certainly gave a very grand display and to be exact he saved three certain goals.
The Army defence worked very hard together, Cox and Alf Din played up well. Williams at centre half was a bit on the slow side and was apt to neglect Divette too often.
Lal Singh was by far the best forward on the field and it was somewhat unfortunate that a few of his perfect back-slick passes went begging. Garthwaite's inside partner was always trying but he was far from his old self.
Fowler on the right wing for the Club was doing some good work. It was a pity that he was not given more opportunity for he would certainly have placed them further ahead. On one or two occasions when he did get through he did not have the full support of the rest of the forwards.
Procht at inside left played a fine dashing game and he too had the misfortune not to score when with only Howlette to beat.
THE PLAY
The Club were the first to take the lead through Fowler who received the ball from Divette and drove in a shot at close quarters which completely beat Howlette.
The Army made a few raids but Potter and Sommer had them well marked with the result that their efforts proved ineffective.
They forced a short corner and Alf Din missed with a fine fast hit.
Shortly afterwards the Army forced another corner and this time the Indian player made no mistake with a well timed shot.
Towards the closing stages of the game the Club pressed hard and almost scored again but Howlette saved well.

"STEAMBOAT ROUND THE BEND"
Laughter and tears, comedy and near-tragedy follow each other in quick succession and bring drama and suspense to Will Rogers' rousing picture of Mississippi steamboat life, "Steamboat Round the Bend," which comes on Thursday to the King's Theatre.
Two unusual entertainment elements combine to make the great moving story of "Steamboat Round the Bend." One is the laugh-filled rivalry of Will Rogers and Irvin S. Cobb, America's two greatest humorists, as the crusty captains of competing boats; the other is the wistful and tender romance of Anne Shirley and John McGuire.
McGuire is a river pilot, nephew of Rogers who owns the "Claremore Queen." In a quarrel over Anne Shirley he kills another man in self-defence.
Rogers is hostile to the girl because of the trouble she has brought to McGuire. But, when their love for him draws them together in the fight to save him, they join in the struggle to get money for the boy's appeal and to find a missing witness who can save him. Their adventures with a wax museum are among the high points of the picture's comedy, their narrow escapes from antagonistic river folk among its thrills.
But the great thrill saved for the last, when Rogers' boat is involved in the great race down to New Orleans as he is hurrying to save his nephew. How Rogers manages to beat propous old Cobb and his "Pride of Paduach," and at the same time save the boy, is revealed in a surprise-filled climax.

"THE BRIDE COMES HOME"
Claudette Colbert and Fred MacMurray, who met with such wide favour as a light romantic team in their first Paramount picture, "The Gilded Lily," are brought together again in the new comedy-romance, "The Bride Comes Home," commencing at the Queen's Theatre this week-end.
"The Bride Comes Home" is an original story written especially for Miss Colbert by Claude Binyon and Miss Colbert. The Gilded Lily, in that it treats of problems confronting young lovers of to-day, its originality makes it one of the most amusing screen farces of the year.

CHAPTER 1
UNIVERSAL
NOAH BEERY JR.
The Call of the Savage
sunday:— "WEREWOLF OF LONDON" with WARNER OLAND romance of Anne Shirley and John McGuire.
McGuire is a river pilot, nephew of Rogers who owns the "Claremore Queen." In a quarrel over Anne Shirley he kills another man in self-defence.
Rogers is hostile to the girl because of the trouble she has brought to McGuire. But, when their love for him draws them together in the fight to save him, they join in the struggle to get money for the boy's appeal and to find a missing witness who can save him. Their adventures with a wax museum are among the high points of the picture's comedy, their narrow escapes from antagonistic river folk among its thrills.
But the great thrill saved for the last, when Rogers' boat is involved in the great race down to New Orleans as he is hurrying to save his nephew. How Rogers manages to beat propous old Cobb and his "Pride of Paduach," and at the same time save the boy, is revealed in a surprise-filled climax.

INDECENT ASSAULT

Judgment Reserved

Judgment was reserved by Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy yesterday in the case in which an Indian watchman, Sher Mohammed, of No. 15 Landale Street, third floor appeared before him on remand, charged with indecent assault on a 6 year-old infant, which was alleged to have taken place in the absence of the little girl's mother at defendant's residence on January 22, last.

The mother of the little girl, according to evidence given at a previous hearing, was employed as an ayah by defendant and two other Indians, at No. 15 Landale Street.

Detective Sergeant D. Fitches appeared for the prosecution while Mr. M. A. da Silva represented the accused. After Mr. Silva had submitted in a lengthy address to the court, that the case devolved on the reliability of the evidence given by the little girl's mother, the Magistrate said that he would reserve his judgment till March 16, at 11.30 a.m.

THE ONLY QUESTION

The only question to be considered, stated Mr. Silva was whether the mother's evidence was to be believed. He had allowed the prosecution a great deal of latitude in order to obtain evidence of rebuttal, but there was one thing that he would not permit, and that was the statement made by Sergeant Fitches regarding certain statements said to have been obtained from the infant, about the alleged assault. The statement was said to have been made at the Police Station, but could not be taken into consideration as the little girl had refused to give evidence in court. At the time it was explained that the girl was perhaps, awe-inspired by the surroundings she found herself in, and whether this was so or not, Mr. Silva said he did not know but nevertheless the girl had refused to give evidence.

DISCREPANCIES

Mr. Silva dealt at length with many discrepancies in the prosecution's case, and suggested that the complainant had not disclosed the real state of relationship existing between herself and the accused. She had made an emphatic and unprompted assertion in her evidence in chief, that there had "truly" not been any trouble before the alleged incident.

The accused's evidence had been given in detail, and most certainly was not a broad statement that could have been invented. The defendant had said that the charge was invented by the infant's mother for spite. He felt sure that the Court would agree with him when he said that the assault alleged against his client, was a "filthy and dirty" affair, and could only be attributed to a "useful person."

It was safe to assume, contended Mr. Silva that a lustful person making an assault on a girl of the complainant's age, would surely have damaged the child, yet it had been revealed in evidence that the girl was not damaged, nor in any other way bruised and in fact, that a doctor who examined both the complainant and the defendant, could find no evidence that an assault had taken place.

Mr. Silva submitted that the evidence given was unreliable, and that his client should be discharged.

AN IMPORTANT SOCIAL EVENT

A Good Cause Must Be Supported

The promoters of the Dinner and Cabaret in aid of the Hong Kong Benevolent Society have great pleasure in announcing that thanks to the generosity and co-operation of the Hong Kong and Shanghai Hotels, Ltd., and numerous Well Known Local Artists this important social event will take place on Friday the 27th of this month at the Peninsula Hotel from 8 p.m. to 2 a.m.

Early booking of tables is strongly recommended, as all the world will be there to see the wonderful variety of cabaret turns which will be given by all sorts of popular people, some of whom you will have seen before, and some of whom will burst upon an enthusiastic public for the first time.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN DUE TO-DAY

Leading Lady With Him Also

The Hong Kong Office of United Artists Corporation has received a cable yesterday to the effect that Charlie Chaplin will arrive here this morning on the Dollar Liner "President Coolidge." Accompanying him is Paulette Goddard, his leading lady.

Chaplin's latest and by far his best picture "Modern Times" has been booked by the King's Theatre, and will be played at the end of April.

A TRIBUTE

Alexander Woolcott, one of America's top radio commentators, recently broadcast from coast-to-coast a most remarkable tribute to Charlie Chaplin in "Modern Times." Mr. Woolcott said in part:

"Now I know how I'm going to spend February. I'm going every day to see Charlie Chaplin in 'Modern Times' and several days in March too, and I've no doubt in the world that a year from now, if able to walk (and two years from now) I'll be chasing" it, up side streets in far corners of the earth. For it is, I think, far and away the best job he's ever done."

Mr. Woolcott, on his recent trip to Hollywood, was one of the very privileged few to see "Modern Times," and this great tribute to Mr. Chaplin's genius was passed on by him to a vast audience of millions of radio listeners.

TWO MILLION DOLLARS

Two million gold dollars have gone into the making of "Modern Times," which was two years in "production," with half that time taken for a complete preparation of the script. Shooting from a prepared script is an innovation with Chaplin, and is responsible for the fact that only ten months were required for the actual camera work instead of the usual eighteen months to two years.

Among the elaborate settings used in the film are a factory complete with machinery, a cafe seating hundreds, three separate streets for outdoor scenes, a jail correct from the warden's office to the mess hall and the long tiers of cells, a shack and a hospital.

Of particular interest is the fact that the first sequence in a Charlie Chaplin film to be shot directly in sound will be seen and heard in "Modern Times." It is in this scene that Chaplin performs a pantomime of the old French song, "Titi-na," and comes closest to letting his voice be heard from the screen. The remainder of the film, in accordance with the famous comedian's tradition, has been photographed as a silent, with synchronized sound and musical effects.

The film serves to introduce Paulette Goddard, the star's newest discovery, in the leading feminine role. In the supporting cast are Henry Bergman, Chester Conklin, Stanley Sandler, Hank Mann, Louis Natheux and Allen Garcia, most of whom have been associated with Charlie Chaplin since his earliest days as a screen star.

FUR LINED COATS

The theft of two fur lined long coats valued at $100 formed the charge against Fo Chun, a 29 year-old unemployed yesterday before Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy when the defendant was convicted and sentenced to three months' hard labour.

Prosecuting, Acting Sub-Inspector Madgewick said defendant was arrested in Causeway Bay Road about 1 a.m. yesterday. The coats were wrapped up in a piece of cloth. When questioned, he stated that his master had sent him out to get the coats. The constable took defendant back to the house and there it was discovered he had stolen them. Defendant stated to the police that he had got into the house through an open window, but this window was very small, and it appeared as if he had been allowed into the house by someone inside. An ayah had since absconded from the house. Defendant had formerly been employed by the complainant and had been dismissed for bad conduct. There had been several petty larcenies in this district recently.

The property belonged to Mr. Lau Tak-po, managing director of the Hong Kong and Yumant Ferry Company, residing at No. 11 Seen Keen Terrace.

MAINTENANCE CASE

Alleged Wilful
Neglect

Lam Tam Sze made an application through her solicitor, Mr. C. A. Sutherland Rusa before Mr. C. Keen at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday in a summons against her husband, Lam Tai for maintenance, whom she charged with wilful neglect. The case was adjourned for one month as the defendant was not in the colony.

Mr. Rusa stated that he understood that defendant was unable to attend, as he was a pilot, on board one of the United States naval vessels which was away from port. The summons he continued, was an application for maintenance and the complainant charged the defendant with wilful neglect in providing for her and her children.

Mr. Rusa explained that no date was mentioned in the summons, as it covered an elastic stretch. The facts were that complainant's husband was employed on a United States naval ship as a pilot and received salary of $150 a month. The complainant was his "kit-far" wife, having married him some years ago. At present there were three children. There were other children who had either died or were married.

The case had come before the Hon. S.C.A. and at that time defendant had admitted that the three children had been properly adopted, and the Hon. S.C.A. made an order that he should pay the complainant $30 a month, which he completely failed to obey, although he got $150 a month as salary. During the past fifteen months he had only paid complainant $15, and she was in such a state that she was forced to give up the small boat she had in the country and come to Hong Kong to pursue her rights.

Mr. C. E. R. Sanderson who was for the defendant submitted that the summons was improper and applied for the dismissal of it. He stated that no dates had been mentioned in the summons and no offense was specified. He submitted that dates must be given in the summons so that he could take full instructions to defend.

The Magistrate refused to dismiss the summons and remanded it by noting the period between August 26, 1936 and February 26, 1937.

In adjourning the summons until 2.30 p.m. on April 8, his Worship in the meanwhile upheld the Hon. S. C. A.'s order that complainant be paid $30 a month.

SNATCHER CAUGHT

Once Too Often

Convicted on the charges of having stolen a handbag, containing $3 in money from Mrs. Souza, residing at No. 14 Shan Kwong Road in Shan Kwong Road on February 28; of the theft of a handbag, containing $4 in money, a fountain pen, pocket book, a Police Office receipt and some keys, from Mrs. Donaldson, residing at No. 11 Village Road, at Yik Yam Street on March 5; and of the theft of a handbag, containing $15.00 in money, from Mrs. E. Tucker in Shan Kwong Road on March 9, Chan Siu (25) was sentenced by Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy yesterday to a total of one year's hard labour and 20 strokes of the birch.

Detailing the facts of the charges Detective-Inspector A. E. Carey stated that in the first case the complainant was 74 years of age. Defendant snatched the handbag from out of a basket she was carrying, and in doing so he knocked the complainant over. As a result, the complainant received a bad shaking up and had not been able to leave her home since. Her appearance in Court was the first time she left her home.

In the second case, the complainant was walking along Yik Yam Street when defendant came from behind and snatched her bag. In the third case, the complainant was walking towards the bus stop at the bottom of Shan Kwong Road and Wong Nei Chong Road when defendant accosted her. He pretended as if he was going to strike a match and light a cigarette, and then snatched her handbag. He was chased by a constable into Yik Yam Street and hid himself in a latrine. He hid the bag in the latrine and came out. The bag

Around the Courts

FAILING TO REPORT

Tam Chi Kau (34), a school teacher appeared on a summons before Mr. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday for failing to report and being the employer of an unregistered, mulatto Tai Yuk Ping aged 19.

Inspector Fraser of the S.C.A. said that the defendant only reported that he had an unregistered mulatto when he was about to marry her. He should have reported the matter long before that. His Worship stated that regulations were made so that the authorities could keep track of these girls, and he had to enforce it that these regulations be kept.

He imposed a fine of $10.

ANOTHER CASE

For failing to report an unregistered mulatto, Chu Sui Kwai (47), appeared before Mr. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday and was fined $15.

UNLAWFUL POSSESSION

No: being able to give a satisfactory explanation as to how he came to be in possession of a bundle of clothes, Fung Wing Tak (30) appeared before Mr. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday on a charge of unlawful possession of 18 pieces of clothing, 8 pairs of socks and 11 neckties, was sentenced to undergo one month's imprisonment.

It appears that the defendant was seen by a constable carrying a bundle under his arm, and when asked about it said that they were torn clothes. On making further inquiries defendant said that he had picked up the bundle outside the Kwong Wah Hospital.

The police made inquiries at the hospital but no one claimed ownership.

OPIUM CASE

Appearing before Mr. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday Li Fuk (55), was charged with possession of non-Government prepared opium, (b) Keeping an opium divan at No. 57 Alpine Street, first floor.

Detective Inspector Goodwin prosecuted.

Accused pleaded guilty to both the charges.

On the first charge he was fined $40 or 1 month, and on the second charge $100 or six weeks' hard labour.

A SCOTS ACCENT IS AN ASSET

Comment By Actor

London, Feb. 24.

A good Scots accent, according to Mr. Esme Percy, the well-known actor of Shavian drama, is a decided asset for anyone embarking on a stage career.

"To me a Scots accent, provided it is a really frank Scots accent, is most attractive and, indeed, beneficial for dramatic purposes," said Mr. Percy to "The Bulletin" on Saturday after he had given adjudications in the elocution competition of the Glasgow branch of the British Empire Shakespeare Society.

"If everyone wants to speak with the same accent, then soon there will be no personality or individuality left," he added.

IMPERIAL AIRWAYS TRAFFIC

London, Feb. 25.

The receipts of Imperial Airways in December amounted to £144,202, as compared with £123,219 in December, 1934. The total receipts since April 1 were £1,357,824, as against £1,151,938 in the corresponding period of 1934. The ton-miles flown during the month were 368,607 (against 289,130), and the ton-miles for the last nine months of 1935 were 3,810,535 (against 2,550,054).

was recovered from the latrine after his arrest. He took the police to the roof of No. 23 Yik Yam Street, where the bag mentioned in the second charge was found under a water tank. A small statue was also found in his possession, which he admitted having stolen. The bag in the first charge was not recovered, while the fountain pen was recovered, from a pawnshop in Cross Street, where he had pawned it for thirty cents. No violence was used in the second and third snatching cases. The bag in the third case was damaged beyond repair. Special police had to be stationed in the district owing to the larcenies.

COUNTERFEIT COINS

Yuen Po (28), a coolie and Chung Shu (27), appeared before Mr. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday on a charge of being in possession of counterfeit coins on March 9.

Inspector Cunningham asked for a remand of 48 hours.

NOT FIGHTING

Yau Cheng Fung and Mak Cheng, appeared before Mr. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday on charges of disorderly conduct and fighting in Shanghai Street, on March 10.

It appears that at about 12.30 p.m. on Tuesday the defendants were seen by a constable having a squabble in Shanghai Street and he arrested them.

First defendant said that they were not fighting but were merely having a little argument. Second defendant pleaded guilty to the charge.

His Worship bound them both over to keep the peace for one year in the sum of $30.

BANISHÉE

For committing a breach of the deportation ordinance, John Tomy appeared before Mr. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday and was sentenced to 10 months' hard labour.

Defendant stated that he was sent to Canton, but he knew nobody there so he wished to go to Amoy where he had some friends.

SOLICITING

On charges of soliciting for prostitution in the vicinity of Water Street, West Point district, three widows, Li So, aged 30, Leung Yee-mun, 34, and Chan Sze, 35, were each fined $15 with the alternative of two weeks' hard labour by Mr. Balfour at Central Magistracy yesterday. Sub-Inspector B. Thorpe stated that in one instance the woman took the constable to a convicted brothel.

SIX WEEKS FOR TEN CENTS

Chung Ha, aged 17 years, unemployed, pleaded guilty before Mr. Balfour at the Central Magistracy yesterday to stealing ten cents from a compatriot in Gough Street and was sentenced to six weeks' hard labour. Sub-Inspector A. Kirby stated the defendant was arrested by a district watchman.

ONE KILLED EVERY SIX MINUTES

London, Feb. 19.

About 99,000 Americans died in accidents during 1935—one every six minutes—according to a report just issued in Chicago by the National Safety Council.

The total bill for American accidents totalled £800,000,000 in damage to property, wage losses, and medical expenses, the council adds.

Their statisticians also give these figures:

Permanently injured... 365,000
Temporarily disabled... 9,100,000
Killed every day... 271
Injured every day... 25,000
Injured every minute... 18
Permanently injured every day... 1,000

A drop of 3000 casualties was noted compared with 1934, but it was pointed out that the heat and drought of 1934 took 3250 lives. Deaths from motor smashes totalled 38,400.

F. J. PERRY WILL BE PLAYING TENNIS AGAIN

London, Feb. 20.

F. J. Perry, Wimbledon lawn tennis champion, will return to practice next week.

Except for one match in Australia—which reawakened the serious back injury he received in the United States championships—it will be his first tennis since last September. Never before has he had so long a rest from the game. Perry has arranged to have half an hour's knock-up at Wimbledon on Monday afternoon with G.P. Hughes, his fellow Davis Cup player, who also has had to give up the game for some months because of overstrain.

"On Tuesday" night Perry will have another light practice at Dulwich covered courts with E. C. Metcalfe, of the Surrey County team.

"My back is ever so much better," he told me, "but as a precaution exercise will be gentle at first. I see no reason why next season I shouldn't be better than ever."

A GOOD YEAR DESPITE DROP IN REVENUE

Bonus Shares To Be Issued By Electric Co.

The forty-seventh ordinary yearly meeting of Shareholders of The Hong Kong Electric Company, Limited, was held yesterday at the Company's Offices, P. & O. Building, Mr. M. T. Johnson (Chairman of Directors) presided and was supported by Sir Robert Ho Tung, Kt., the Hon. Sir Shouson Chow, Kt., Mr. T. E. Pearce, Mr. Stanley H. Dodwell, the Hon. Mr. J. J. Paterson (Directors), and Mr. V. Sorby (Manager), and Mr. G. N. Thison (Solicitor). Shareholders were represented by Messrs. Chan Shu Ming, Capt. F. L. Brown, O.B.E., Lo Koon Kan, Lo Kai Wing, Wong Ping Sun, B. Wong Tape, the Hon. Mr. Chau Tsun-nin, Frank Austin (representing A. J. David), Gibson Fahnestock, Alex. Campbell, N. M. Currie, Leung Fat-tin, J. Owen Hughes, C. G. S. Mackie, A. McKellar, Wong Chi Po, A. Stevenson, J. E. M. Barnes, W. H. Choy, Chua Seng Choo, Chu Kie Kwan, J. M. Jack, G. V. Osmund and Wong Hing Kwong.

Chairman's Speech

The Manager having read the notice convening the meeting, the Chairman said:—

Gentlemen,—The Report and Statement of Accounts for the year ended 31st December, 1935, have been in your hands for the prescribed period, and with your permission I will take them as read.

The net profit after providing for depreciation is $1,838,542.87, and with $155,908.42 brought forward from last year we have the sum of $1,994,451.29 for appropriation. On September the 23rd we paid an interim dividend of 1 per share absorbing $450,000 and with the balance proposed:—

To pay a final dividend of 1.50 per share absorbing	$875,000.00
To pay a cash bonus of 50 cents per share absorbing	225,000.00
To place to reserve	400,000.00
To carry forward to next Account	244,451.29

The amount of the dividend and bonus recommended is the same as last year and I hope you will consider this satisfactory.

EARNINGS LESS

The gross earnings are $74,754.08 less than last year, due of course to the reductions made in the charge for current which came into force in July last, to which I will refer later, but thanks to economies effected in working and to the lower cost of coal the profit on working shows a small increase of $9,869.33.

We have set aside for depreciation a total of $715,540, practically the same amount as in 1934.

The output from our plant at North Point was 48,813,823 units, an increase of 2,479,758 units or 5.35 per cent on the previous year's working. This increase is entirely due to larger sales of current for power. The fall in lighting consumption, reported by my predecessor last year, has continued but not, I am glad to say, in the same degree.

There was an increase of 718 in the number of meters connected as compared with an increase of 400 in 1934 and this brings the total number on circuit up to 38,900.

Turning to the Balance Sheet, you will observe that the Reserve now stands at $5,500,000, the increase of $500,000 representing the amount appropriated to reserve for 1934.

On the Assets side, Investments at cost show an increase of $166,641.75 owing to further investments made during the year. The market value of your investments at 31st December, 1935, was less than the purchase price by $102,302.75, but in view of conditions then ruling in the Colony this depreciation in value was to be expected. These investments are all in sound dividend earning concerns.

Cash at hand and on current account and fixed deposits was $1,577,087.74, an increase of $269,916.18 over last year.

EXPENDITURE

During the year we expended on capital account nearly $300,000, the principal items being final payments in respect of boiler No. 13 installed during 1933, the equipment of a substation at the new Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank building, new buildings at Sassoon Road and Second Street, for future substations, and a wall to enclose our new property on M.L. 526 at North Point. There were a large number of smaller works in connection with the extension of feeders and distributors throughout the Colony.

In July we reduced the standard charge for lighting units from 16 to 15 cents and introduced an additional discount on power and heating accounts of over 1,000 units. The fall in revenue in a full year due to these reductions is calculated to be about $220,000 and I trust Consumers will appreciate this concession in price.

At the present rate of exchange our standard price for lighting is under 2½d. per unit. This is considerably less than that ruling in neighbouring Colonies and in most towns of similar size in Great Britain.

At the last meeting my predecessor reported the acquisition of additional land at North Point for storage and extension purposes. This land has a wharf alongside which we can berth steamers. During the year 36 ships unloaded 36,500 tons of coal on to the new property and this effected a considerable saving in the cost of coal handling.

Our installations at North Point and in the various substations have been maintained in good order during the year and we have been free of industrial troubles and typhoons.

The question of keeping our plant up to date has always the close consideration of your Directors and it may interest you to learn that at their request Mr. Marsh, our Consulting Engineer, who will be remembered by many of you as Manager from 1921 to 1930, paid a visit to the Colony recently in order to discuss with us various matters connected with the undertaking.

EXTENSION POSTPONED

We were able to postpone the extension of the North Point plant which, you will remember, was mentioned at the last General Meeting when we anticipated placing orders for new machinery in 1935 or early 1936. We now think that this question can be deferred for at least a year, and in consequence no longer see any necessity for fresh capital to finance the next extension of generating plant.

It has always been the policy of the Company to set aside annually liberal amounts to reserve which have been expended in extensions of the plant.

In order to give to Shareholders a return obviously due on such amounts we have in the past capitalized a portion of the reserve fund and have declared a bonus to be satisfied by the issue of new shares.

The last of such issues was made in 1928 and the Board now recommend that a further $1,500,000 of the Reserve Fund should be capitalized and one fully paid new share for every three old shares in the Company be issued as a bonus to Shareholders on the Register at the 26th February 1936. These new shares to rank for dividend with the existing shares as from the 1st January 1936. The necessary Extraordinary General Meeting to carry the above into effect will be held immediately after the close of this meeting.

BONUS SHARES

In announcing on the 19th February last their intention to recommend to Shareholders the issue of these bonus shares the Board considered it advisable to include a warning, which I now repeat, that, while there is every prospect if conditions remain as they are to-day, that the present dividend can be maintained on the increased Capital, continuance of the cash bonus which has been paid for the last four years must not be expected.

I take this opportunity of recording your Directors' appreciation of the services rendered by the Manager, the Staff and Work-

I now propose that the Report and Statement of Accounts as presented for the year ended 31st December 1935 be adopted and when this has been seconded I shall be pleased to answer to the best of my ability any questions you may desire to ask.

SECONDER'S SPEECH

"The Hon. Mr. Chau Tsun-nin, in seconding the proposal said:—
Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen,—I congratulate you and your fellow Directors, and the Company's Agents, on the result of the year's working, and feel that all Shareholders will be satisfied with the proposed dividend and bonus, and that they will consider the proposed issue of shares a reasonable return on the undivided profits of previous years.

I am glad to learn that the number of units sold in 1935 was greater than in 1934 and that the number of meters connected shows a further increase. The reduced charges which came into force in July last are, I feel certain, appreciated by all Consumers of our supply and should lead to a further demand for current.

I have noted with interest your report on capital expenditure during the year. That you have been able to defer the extension of plant contemplated last year is satisfactory. The Directors' policy of keeping our machinery up to date and in good order meets with wholehearted approval and I am sure that the question of extending the plant as and when necessary can be left to them with every confidence.

I have no doubt that all Shareholders will wish to join me in your appreciation of the services rendered during the year by the Manager, Staff and Workmen.

I now beg, Sir, to second the adoption of the Report and Statement of Accounts as presented.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The next item on the agenda was the election of Directors and it was proposed by Mr. J. Owen Hughes and seconded by Mr. J. E. M. Barnes that in the place of Mr. C. Gordon Mackie, who is retiring that Mr. T. M. Johnson be elected in his place. The proposal was carried unanimously.

The re-election of the Hon. Sir Shouson Chow and Mr. S. H. Dodwell as directors was proposed by Mr. Leung Fat-tin and seconded by Capt. F. L. Brown, O.B.E., and it was also carried unanimously.

It was proposed, by Mr. A. Stevenson and seconded by Mr. A. McKellar that Messrs. Linstead and Davies be re-elected auditors for the forthcoming year at a remuneration of $2,500, was carried.

The business of the Annual General Meeting was then concluded.

EXTRAORDINARY MEETING

An extraordinary general meeting was held following the ordinary yearly meeting.

The Chairman (Mr. M. T. Johnson) called on the Manager to read the notice convening the meeting and then said:—At the ordinary yearly meeting which has just terminated I mentioned to you that the Directors proposed to capitalize a portion of the Company's Reserve Fund, and to declare a bonus to be satisfied by the issue of one new share for every three shares held by shareholders on the Register as on the 29th February last.

You will see that the Directors further recommend that no fractional certificates, which are productive of endless difficulties, should be issued, but that where holders are entitled to a fraction of a share the whole of that share should be sold and the net proceeds divided amongst shareholders entitled to the share. This follows the same principle as was adopted when the last issue of bonus shares was made in 1928, and I hope meets with shareholders' approval.

THE RESOLUTION

I now therefore propose the following resolutions:—

(1) That it is desirable to capitalize the sum of $1,500,000 being part of the undivided profits of the Company standing to the credit of the Reserve Fund, and accordingly that a bonus of $1,500,000 be declared and that such bonus be applied on behalf of the persons who on the 28th day of February 1936 are the registered holders of the 450,000 issued shares of the Company in payment in full of 150,000 shares of the Company of $10 each and that such 1,500,000

WEDDING BELLS

Walker-Wilson

A wedding of considerable local interest was solemnised yesterday at the St. John's Cathedral when Miss Joyce Noel Harris-Walker, the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. St. G. Harris-Walker of 248 The Peak, Hong Kong became the bride of Mr. Geoffrey Studholme Wilson, the only son of the late Dr. J. E. Studholme Wilson and of Mrs. Studholme Wilson of Steeple Claydon, Burks, England.

The Cathedral was tastefully decorated for the occasion and there was a large gathering of relatives and friends when the bride entered the Church leaning on the arm of Mr. A. Friwall, the bride's brother-in-law who gave her away in the unavoidable absence of her father. The Right Rev. Bishop Hall officiated.

The bride looked radiant in a dress of silver lame, princess lines with a long flowing train lined with satin with a wedding veil of silver tulle, gardenias, orange blossoms and carrying a bouquet of cream roses. She was attended by Miss Vivienne Blackburn as bridesmaid who wore a pink beige angel skin lace dress. She carried a bouquet of shaded yellow Iceland poppies.

Mrs. J. E. Friwall undertook the duties of Matron of Honour. She wore a brown angel skin lace dress. The duties of best man were in the hands of Mr. Oland Burgess.

After the wedding a reception was held at "Derrington," No. 7 Macdonnell Road where the many friends gathered to offer their felicitations. The Hon. Mr. T. F. King proposed the toast to the newly-wed.

The honeymoon is being spent in Manila.

THE SECRETARIAL EXAMINATION

ITALY'S CIVILISING MISSION

With the customary flourish of trumpets General Graziani, Italian commander on the Southern Abyssinian front, has proclaimed the liberation of all slaves in the territory captured from Ras Desta.
This is intended to lend colour to the picture of Italy as fighting to bring civilisation to the misgoverned Abyssinians.

Those who have had an opportunity of studying Italian methods in Eritrea tell a different story. A well-known authority on Abyssinia, discussing the continuance of slave-trading between that country and Arabia writes: "Abyssinia at no point comes within forty miles of the sea, and the only way to get to the sea in order to cross to Arabia is to cross Italian Eritrea, which is what the slave caravans have been doing without any apparent opposition for the last fifty years or a hundred years—in fact ever since it has been Eritrea and before. If Italy is so concerned about abolishing slavery in Abyssinia she might have done something about these slave caravans which have constantly trickled through her territory and embarked for Arabia, from Italian soil."

A former Second-in-Command of the British sloop which patrols the Red Sea in order to combat slave-trading tells the same story in a letter to the Spectator. He writes: "slave-trading from Eritrean ports is to-day, in 1936, almost a routine affair. Swift-sailing dhows clear regularly from recognised haunts, under Italian papers, carrying under a stretched-out sail from six to twelve slaves bound for Arabia. In 1928 it was Italy who refused to agree to the Slavery Abolition Bill; her administration made too much money out of this infamous human traffic."

Now Italy, which for decades has tolerated slavery and slave-trading in her own possessions, has suddenly appeared as the champion of the miserable Abyssinian slaves. No doubt if she should ever find herself at war with Germany she would declare that she was fighting to free German people from the scourge of Fascist rule.

Earl Of Dartmouth

London, Mar. 11.
The death has occurred of the
Earl of Dartmouth.—
Reuter's Bulletin Service.

William Heneage Legge, sixth
Earl of Dartmouth, was born on May 6, 1851, and succeeded to the title in 1891, on the death of his father. He married in 1879 Mary, fourth daughter of the second Earl of Leicester, and leaves two sons and two daughters.

For several years he was Conservative Whip in the House of Commons, and Vice-Chamberlain of the Household. His land holdings amount to 19,500 acres.

His heir is Viscount Lewisham,
Lord Great Chamberlain of England since 1928 and High Bailiff of Westminster since 1930, who is in his 56th year.

BILLIARDS

L.T. Young Wins Junior Title

The Junior Billiards Championship was decided last night when
L. T. Young defeated A. Kitchell by 68 points in a match of five hundred up. The match, as is the case with the other final, was played at the Club Lusitano.

The players were evenly matched as the scores show. Except for a short period in the third hundred Kitchell was leading all the way. Young drew level at 423 and scored the last 77 points with only a reply of eleven from his opponent.

SENIOR CHAMPIONSHIP
The play-off to decide the third and fourth places in the Senior Championship was played after dinner. The match was between
M. M. da Silva and Lum Cho-cha, the latter running out the winner in comfort with a score of 750 to his opponent's 478.

The highest break of the match was one of 58 by Lum who incidentally also scored another of 50. Silva's highest break was 50.

SENIOR FINAL TO-DAY
To-day the final of the Senior Championship will be decided between A. J. Osmund and W. Hong Sling. This match will be one of 1,000 points, up and will start at 5.30 p.m.

Some very good billiards is anticipated and though all the reserved seats are taken up there are still remaining many unreserved seats.

NAVY SEAPLANE CRASHES

Occupants Escape Injury

Manila, Mar. 11.
A seaplane attached to the U.
S. S. Augusta crashed in the sea at Liptong Bay at Samar yesterday afternoon while on routine flight.

The pilot, Lieut. L. C. Simpler and one passenger escaped without any injury.

The machine, which was a total wreck, was towed to Tacloban by a passing vessel. It is believed that the seaplane will be abandoned by the Navy.—

CHINA TO APPOINT TRADE ENVOYS

Nanking, Mar. 11.
Chinese trade commissioners will soon be appointed to a number of posts in important countries of the world, beginning with

A GREAT AND GALLANT SEAMAN

First Sea Lord's Tribute To Earl Beatty

London, Mar. 11.
The death occurred early this morning of Admiral of the Fleet Earl Beatty at the age of 85. Lord Beatty had been ill for a considerable time. Last November he insisted on leaving his sick bed to act as bearer at the funeral of Earl Jellicoe. When still ill he took part in King George's funeral procession on January 28. Since then his condition became steadily worse.

Admiral Sir Ernie Chatfield, First Sea Lord, who was Flag
Captain to Lord Beatty in H.M.S. "Lion" during the action off Heligoland early in the War, paid the following tribute to the Admiral. He said: "A great and gallant seaman has passed away.
He was the embodiment of the fighting spirit of the British Navy.
He and Lord Jellicoe will be remembered as two of the greatest British seamen of our age. They were in many ways different, but they had one thing in common—determination to uphold the highest traditions of the Navy's Service to which they belonged.
History will record that they succeeded."—British Wireless

London, Mar. 11.
Admiral Lord Beatty, who was Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Fleet during the greater part of the European war, died shortly after midnight. He had been gravely ill for some days prior to his passing.
The morning papers devote columns in tributes to the late Admiral Earl Beatty and to sketches of his career.

They recall, too, that when told of the death of Lord Jellicoe he predicted he would be the next war-time leader to die.

"I don't think the call will be long. I am tired; very tired," he said.

The death of the famous naval leader causes a by-election in Peckham, where his son, Viscount Borodale, who succeeds to the peerage, had a majority of only
772 at the General Election.—
Reuter.

NAVAL CAREER

David Beatty was born on January 17, 1871, the son of
Captain D. L. Beatty of Borodale,
Co. Wexford, and entered the Navy in 1884, receiving his first commission four years later.

He attained the rank of Rear Admiral in 1910, Vice-Admiral in 1915, and Admiral of the Fleet in 1919, being created a Viscount in the same year.

Earl Beatty was Naval Secretary to the First Lord of the Admiralty in 1912, served in the Soudan War, 1898-99, and 1898, his distinguished service bringing him the D.S.O., medal of the 4th class Melitide, and promotion to the rank of Commander.

He served in China in 1900, receiving further recognition and promotion to the rank of Captain.

In the European War he was mentioned in despatches in 1914-
15, awarded the K.C.B., and in 1916 he received the K.C.V.O. for his part in the Battle of Jutland.
He commanded the First Battle Cruiser Squadron from 1912 to 1916, the Grand Fleet until 1919, and was First Sea Lord from that year to 1927.

In October 1919, on his elevation to the Peerage, the Government voted him a sum of £100,000 for his services.

TILTED CAP

He was one of the outstanding as well as the most dashing figures in the war—the naval officer who,
of all others, appealed to the dramatic sense of no mean part of his fellow-countrymen. He was young, and surely, it was urged,
the making of war was the task of youth; he was picturesque, with Kowloon Hospital. During blasting operations at Shing Mun, a labourer, Mu Kin-mei, of Wu Lee Hob Village, was injured and was sent to the Shing Mun Hospital on Tuesday.

Knocked down by taxi No. 144 in Chater Road on Tuesday, Chan
Chiu, 45, of 52 Tung Wong Fei
Street, was removed to the Government Civil Hospital for treatment.

Two cases of Enteric Fever were reported to the Health Authorities for the 24 hours ended on Tuesday.

Among those departing from the Colony to-day on the Empress of Asia which is bound for Manila are the newly-wed Mr. and Mrs. G. S.
Wilson, who were only married yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howe-Martyn are also among the passengers on the Empress of Asia. Mrs. Martyn, as we know, is the Birth Control advocate and has recently returned to Hong Kong from Canton, where she had been on a short visit.

The forthcoming wedding is announced of Mr. William Campbell
Mu'r, 112, Waterloo Road, and Miss Isobel MacBean of Vancouver, B.C., Canada. Miss MacBean en route to the Colony.

Among the passengers on the Blue Funnel Steamer Antenor which left the Colony for London yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. J. R.

yesterday on the Antenor bound for Colombo. Her departure leaves a gap in the team that will be hard to fill.

TRANSFER OF LEAGUE COUNCIL VENUE

Decision Surprises French Political Circles

(“Hong Kong Daily Press” Special)

Paris, March 11.

The decision of the Locarno powers to resume their discussions on Thursday in London, and that the next session of the League Council will also be held in London, caused much surprise in political circles here. Most observers are inclined to believe that the British Government has insisted on this change because it was feared that Mr. Eden may make too many concessions to the French point of view, and enter into commitments which other members of the British Cabinet consider inexpedient.—Transocean News Service.

London, March 11.

It is understood that one of the considerations leading to the proposal to hold the Locarno Pact signatories' and League Council meetings in London was that public opinion in Great Britain has remained most calm throughout the present crisis, which will assist in the admittedly difficult negotiations. It is also considered that communication between London and Berlin, if it is necessary, would be much easier than between Geneva and Berlin. This will be the first meeting of the League Council in Britain since 1922.—Reuter.

Paris, Mar. 11.

The invitation to the Locarno signatories to go to London is due largely to the very deep impression made on Mr. Anthony Eden and Lord Halifax by the statements of M. Flandin and M. Van Zeeland, who placed the problem on the plane of the League and emphasised the menace to the peace of Englishmen and desired Mr. Baldwin and the members of the Cabinet to hear the same arguments.

It is also hinted that Mr. Eden is anxious to avoid the fate of Sir Samuel Hoare after the Paris conversation.

It is learned from authoritative sources that the minimum France could accept is that Germany should sign a convention guaranteeing by which Germany will undertake not to construct fortifications in the Rhineland zone.

France is expected to invoke the League resolution of April 4, 1935, condemning the unilateral repudiation of undertakings, and providing for economic and financial sanctions. France wishes to count on the wholehearted support of the guarantor States, even if it means going as far as military measures.—Reuter.

SOCIALIST DISAPPROVAL

(“Hong Kong Daily Press” Special)

Paris, Mar. 11.

The Socialist group of the French Chamber unanimously passed a resolution expressing disapproval of the “unilateral denunciation of the Locarno Treaty” and “brutal occupation of the Rhineland Zone.” The resolution warns, however, to make the present situation a question of prestige and self-complacency, and advises, moreover, to seek a settlement by arbitration.

The general pacts for non-aggression and military assistance should, the resolution goes on to say, be supplemented by a general disarmament convention.—Transocean News Service.

PROPOSAL WELCOMED

London, Mar. 11.

The announcement of transference to London instead of to Geneva of further consideration by the Locarno powers and by the League Council of the crisis precipitated by Germany's violation of the Locarno Treaty and entry of her troops into the demilitarized zone took most people by surprise, but it appears to be widely welcomed in Britain and most European countries.

The suggestion came from Mr. Eden and Lord Halifax, British Ministers, at yesterday's consultations in Paris. It was approved by their Government and afterwards by the French Belgian and Italian representatives in Paris. Later with the approval of the President of the League Council, the proposal was put to members of that body that if no objections were received the League Council would hold an extraordinary session in London next Saturday.

Mr. Eden said that Lord Halifax had intended to return to London from Paris by air this morning, but owing to bad weather he was forced to travel by train.

According to present arrangements, Signor Grandi will fly to London to-morrow morning and will be joined later in the week by M. Paul Boncour, M. van Zeeland and the Italian Ambassador and they are expected to represent their countries at the conversations of the Locarno powers.

GERMAN POINT OF VIEW

Hitler Justifies His Action

London, Mar. 10.

The German Chancellor, Herr Adolf Hitler, further explained his attitude towards the Treaty of Locarno and his action in reoccupying the Rhineland with military forces in an important interview with Mr. G. Ward Price at Munich. The interview was given much prominence in the “Daily Mail” today.

Herr Hitler stated that his proposal for non-aggression pacts with border states was meant to be universal applied, with Austria and Czechoslovakia included in the scheme. The pacts could be more efficiently negotiated by direct dealings between the governments concerned, he said.

Pacts between Germany on one side and France and Belgium, and perhaps Holland, on the other, should be a matter for the governments of those countries, and for the governments of Britain and Italy, which would be invited to sign as sureties.

It might perhaps be desirable that the powers which guaranteed the pacts should first discuss the matter with those whose security they would guarantee.

Similarly, non-aggression pacts could be directly negotiated between other bordering states. Germany would be only too glad, however, if some other power, Britain for example, would come forward as an honest broker with a practical proposition for a solution of these matters.

ANOTHER CHANCE

The German Government, said Herr Hitler, would do nothing more to alter the existing situation. There was no reason to fix a time limit for their proposals but if they were again rejected or simply ignored, the German Government would not importune Europe with further overtures.

Herr Hitler disclaimed any intention of aggressive action against France, but in view of the fact that the Franco-Soviet military alliance was contrary to the spirit and letter of the Locarno Pact the densely populated and economically valuable border zone of the Reich could not be left defenceless, he said.

He urged that demilitarised zones on a reciprocal basis was the best solution. Had he begun by making his proposals, coupled with a demand for restoration of sovereign rights in the Rhineland, they would probably have been approved by the world, Herr Hitler added. But he did not believe they would ever have reached the conference table.

British and French statesmen who found their country in so tragic a condition as he found his would certainly have acted in the same way. The German proposals, he concluded, would render a great service to Europe and the cause of peace if they were accepted.—Reuter.

WORLD MUST ACCEPT

Berlin, Mar. 10.

The world must accept the Fuehrer's proposals; there was no other solution; they were the only proposals which could restart national economic recovery in Europe, declared Dr. Joseph Goebbels, Minister for Propaganda, in a broadcast speech at the opening of the election campaign to-night.

“We did not want to break the bridges with France. On the contrary we seek peace more than ever,” he declared.—Reuter.

“Not Even A Thin Excuse”

London, Mar. 11.

Yesterday's conversations consist of preliminary exchange of views and suggestions to deal with the situation. Emphasis was also laid on the point that Germany had chosen a strange method of “vindictive honour” by dishonouring a freely negotiated treaty as a preliminary to offering to negotiate another and that such methods could only create deep alarm and indignation in France.

The Belgian Prime Minister made a point that so far as his country was concerned Germany had not even a thin excuse for the pact with Russia to justify reoccupation of the former demilitarised zone opposite the Belgian frontiers.

From a juridical viewpoint also M. Flandin was enabled to present

NEGUS TAKES COMMAND

Well Armed Force On March

(“Hong Kong Daily Press” Special)

Asmara, March 11.

Troops under the personal command of the Negus have left Dessie, and it is expected that they will approach the Italian forces stationed southwards of Amba Alaji in four or five days. It is stated that this army is equipped with the most modern means of warfare as well as with ample ammunition.

The Negus is stated to have held an important war council before leaving Dessie, and he proclaimed in a public address that the troops will now fight under his personal command.

It is understood that important movements of Italian troops are also taking place, the Italian air force being especially active and reinforcements being brought up from Tembien.—Transocean News Service.

DEBRA MARKOS BOMBED

Addis Ababa, Mar. 11.

It is reliably reported that Debra Markos, capital of Gojjam province, received one of the most intense bombardments of the war.

Twelve planes relentlessly bombed the town, wrecking buildings, killing fifty and wounding eighty five non-combatants.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

BOMBING PLANES

Addis Ababa, Mar. 11.

An Italian bombing plane squadron cruised over the north front along the Takazze river on Tuesday, dropping bombs on Dekenze on the way back.

The civil authorities in Addis Ababa have ordered that all benzine stocks in the capital be transferred outside the city since in the event of bombardment the danger of fire is very serious in view of the light wooden structure of most of the buildings.—Transocean News Service.

MARTIAL LAW IN SPAIN

Serious Incidents In Granada

(“Hong Kong Daily Press” Special)

Madrid, Mar. 11.

Martial law has been proclaimed by the Spanish Government in the province of Granada in view of the serious disorders which occurred in connection with the general strike.

The premises of papers of non-left wing tendencies have been raided and demolished, likewise a theatre partly destroyed, as well as several cafes completely demolished by the riotous mob.

As the Madrid authorities are applying a strict censorship, it is rather difficult to obtain exact reports as to the real extent of upheaval and disorder in Granada.—Transocean News Service.

BUILDINGS BURNED

Madrid, Mar. 11.

Four large buildings including a convent and Catholic party headquarters were set on fire following the earlier incident.—Reuter.

TENSION IN SPAIN

Madrid, Mar. 10.

Sharp tension exists following the killing of two Socialists, allegedly by Fascists, to-day.

The Socialists were holding a meeting when shots were fired at the gathering from a passing taxi.—Reuter.

a convincing case and the points he made as to the dangers inherent in the practice of unilateral treaty breakings were it to be allowed to continue, needed no emphasis.

The British representatives, with every desire that something constructive should emerge from the present chaos, were fully alive to the serious issues raised by the German action.—British Wireless.

FRENCH REPLY TO GERMANY

Premier's Speech In The Chamber

Paris, Mar. 10.

Queues waited for two hours to obtain admittance to the Chamber of Deputies to-day to hear the Premier, M. Albert Sarraut's speech, in reply to the German Chancellor's memorandum offering new security terms to the French.

The Prime Minister said that France's request to Germany, made through the Ambassador at Berlin, to define the basis for conversations as an outcome of a recent interview with Herr Adolf Hitler published in a Paris newspaper, had been answered with the repudiation of the Treaty of Locarno, a freely negotiated pact, and the sudden and brutal reoccupation of the Rhineland demilitarised zone.

Thirty battalions of infantry and artillery units had been poured in from this treaty-defended area, said M. Sarraut.

“We have taken up our stand within the framework of the League of Nations because the fate of the League will be at stake in the near future,” declared the Prime Minister.

Defending the Franco-Soviet pact, he denied that France had promised Russia more than she would owe in any case as a League member.

M. Sarraut invited the German people, in the name of its culture and racial virtues, to ponder the new responsibilities certain people wish to make it assume. He averred that France never had and never would wish to assail German liberty and honour.

“France has no advantage to draw from the misery of the German people,” he asserted. France could not negotiate under the shadow of violence and after the denunciation of treaty signatories voluntarily exchanged, he declared.

France was ready to unite with other League powers and to reply to this formidable attack on international confidence, faith in treaties of collective security, and the organisation of peace, M. Sarraut proclaimed. France was also prepared to negotiate with Germany but respect for international law must first be re-ensured.—Reuter.

VOYAGE OF POTSDAM INTERRUPTED

Mishap In Channel

London, March 11.

The new N.D.L. liner Potsdam which left Bremen yesterday on her second voyage to the Far East turned back to Bremen owing to a slight fire and breakdown of the engine. The mishap occurred in the English Channel before the passengers from England embarked.—Reuter.

CIVILIANS IMPLICATED IN TOKYO UPRISING

Tokyo, Mar. 11.

Martial law will probably continue to be enforced until March 31 possibly with a view to assisting the authorities in rounding up the civilians implicated in the recent mutiny. So far 150 civilians have been arrested.

Except for this fact, the martial law has caused no interference with the normal activities at the capital.—Reuter.

PRIVY COUNCIL HEAD IN JAPAN RESIGNS

Tokyo, Mar. 11.

Mr. Hirota has accepted the resignation of Mr. Ikki from the presidency of the Privy Council on grounds of ill-health. Mr. Hirota has been appointed to succeed him.—Reuter.

LONDON-MALAYA PHONE SERVICE

London, March 11.

In the House of Commons to-day, Mr. J. H. Thomas, Secretary of State for the Colonies, replying to Mr. Marcus Samuel (Con. Putney), announced that steps were being taken to establish a telephone service between London and Malaya, which will be opened as soon as the equipment which has been ordered can be delivered.—Reuter.

CULMINATING POINT IN ARMAMENTS

Mr. Winston Churchill's Warning

“I fear, indeed, that there may be a culminating point in the armaments history of Europe. I cannot tell when it will be reached, but certainly it will be reached in the lifetime of the present Parliament. It may pass off. Let us never accept the theory of inevitable war, but neither let us blind our eyes to the remorseless march of events,” said Mr. Winston Churchill during the debate in the House of Commons on Britain's defence plans.

“A terrible dilemma lies ahead of the most peacefully minded Government,” he said. “If they go on there is bankruptcy. If they stop there is tremendous unemployment. The German Government will have to choose at no distant date between internal and external catastrophe.”

London, Mar. 10.

The debate in the House of Commons on the Defence White Paper was continued to-day. The Home Secretary, Sir John Simon emphasised that the normal system in which the Committee of Imperial Defence, of which the Prime Minister was Chairman, operated, and of which the Chiefs of the Staff Committee was one of its many sub-committees, was suited to normal times, but it became necessary to reconsider, strengthen and elaborate it in the times through which we were passing.

As they approached the more difficult time of emergency—if unhappily they should approach the war—what was necessary was more continuous contact, and more rapid co-operation; than they got with the Committee of Imperial Defence on the one hand, and the Cabinet on the other. If the proposals in the White Paper were approved by Parliament a portion of the difficulties of the urgent and important task would have been most promptly discharged. It would require the most unremitting attention.

In the judgment of Government some expansion of the existing organisation for dealing with the defence was now required, and the Government had reached the conclusion that this would best be done by creating a new Minister, who would exercise high and special authority, as the definite Chairman of the Committee of Imperial Defence, set out in the White Paper.

GERMAN REARMAMENT

Mr. Winston Churchill later took part in the debate. He said the scale on which foreign rearmament was proceeding, was prodigious. Some time ago he made a statement that Germany had spent, directly or indirectly on armaments in 1935, upwards of £300,000,000 sterling. He had said the financial statements as to how the money had been secretly found among German financiers.

In the three years since Herr Hitler had been in power, Germany had spent over £1,500,000,000—money raised by internal borrowing, and her resources had been mortgaged even for four years ahead. Supposing the figure were only £800,000,000, we should still be confronted with facts which were immeasurable in their consequences. Millions of people in Germany who were formerly unemployed had found employment in munitions manufacture, or in armed forces. The financial situation has become such that this cannot go on indefinitely. A terrible dilemma lies ahead of the most peacefully minded Government. If they go on there is bankruptcy. If they stop there is tremendous unemployment. The German Government will have to choose at no distant date between internal and external catastrophe. Can we doubt what course the man at the head of Germany would be likely to choose?

ONLY HALF READY

Germany, we are told, is not yet ready for war. Some say she is only half ready yet we see that already they are the only nation in Europe unafraid of war. If what we have seen in the last few days is the mood of a partially armed Germany, imagine what it will be when the colossal preparations which are being made are approaching their zenith, and when the limits of international borrowing are already in sight. Wars do not always wait till the combatants are ready.

“I fear indeed that there may be a culminating point in the armaments history of Europe. I cannot tell when it will be reached, but certainly it will be reached in the lifetime of the present Parliament. It may pass off. Let us never accept the theory of inevitable war, but neither let us blind our eyes to the remorseless march of events.”—British Wireless.

VOTE OF CONFIDENCE

London, Mar. 10.

The House of Commons to-day approved the Government's Defence White Paper by 371 votes to 153, after rejecting by 378 votes to 155 the hostile Labour amendment.

Mr. Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, in winding up the debate, made a statement on to-day's events in Paris, confirming that the Locarno Powers and the League Council will meet in London. He added that the meeting of the Committee of Thirteen, which was to have been held at Geneva to-morrow, had been postponed until next week.

Mr. Chamberlain said the events of the week-end had confirmed the statements in the White Paper that the situation was not static and that periodical changes in the proposals must be necessary.—Reuter.

All In The Day's Sport

London, Feb. 25. The Football League, whatever the rights and wrongs of their war on the Pools, have not run a campaign during this week with any distinction. They have annoyed the public by their silence on the all-important question of procedure for announcing fixtures to football followers. Here there is not the least need for secrecy.

A club manager told me to-day that neither he nor any other manager had heard a word from the League yet; they did not even know officially of the big changes proposed.

But I would mind betting slight odds—12 betting were allowed in football—that the team we shall play next Saturday will be well, the one printed for that day on the fixtures!

The League, in fact, are preserving the same air of mystery as a committee in Geneva or Whitehall. The consequences, while less serious in football than in politics, are equally irritating.

CHECK FOR McAVOY
Because Jock McAvoy, our middle-weight champion, did not make a hasty meal of Anson Green at Philadelphia last night, his stock has slumped in America so it would appear from the cabled story of his fight with the negro.

Often American "unknowns" are the toughest of fellows. Still, it is not enough that McAvoy only outpointed Green.

I am not fearful for his chances against John Henry Lewis for the cruiser title of the world on March 13, but after last night's happening I am less disposed to take his victory against that negro for granted. Lewis in a title and Lewis in a contest without serious meaning bear no relationship one with the other.

LEN HARVEY AS LOOKER-ON
Len Harvey, recuperating after his operation, has been shooting on the Hampshire hills round Alton.

I hear that he attended boxing matches at Alton, and was given a rousing reception when he entered the ring. Incidentally he met one of his old club mates of 16 years ago of the Devonport Devonian B.C., Mr. Jock Aggley, who founded the Alton boxing club.

BROTHERS VERSUS BROTHERS

Another entertaining golf challenge match is likely to be arranged in the near future. The brothers S. and A. Easterbrook, of Knowle, and Exeter, respectively, have thrown down the gauntlet to the Whitcombe brothers, and the challenge has been taken up by Charles and Ernest, also West Countrymen.

If the stakes and one or two other little matters are fixed to everyone's satisfaction the match will take place at Exeter.

M.C.C.'s AUSTRALIAN MANAGER

Mr. T. H. Howard, of Sydney, will be remembered as treasurer of the Australian cricket side which visited England in 1930. Now he writes to a friend in England that he has been manager to an England side in Australia—the M.C.C. team now in New Zealand.

He was asked from Lord's and Auckland to make easy the way of the team during their Australian fixtures.

"I was eight weeks on the tour," he writes, "and it was about the easiest and most pleasant cricketing job I have ever had."

The English chaps are a delightful lot, and E. R. T. Holmes, the captain, a particularly fine fellow, and conscientious in the interests of his team. He is to be thanked for the part he has played over here in bringing proper understanding.

Mr. Howard is a member of the Board of Control.

EXCHANGE TOO
GOOD
FOR BROKERS

Wins Annual Soccer Match

The football match witnessed yesterday on the Cup ground where the annual encounter between the Long Kong Sharebrokers Association and the Stock Exchange was played, was not productive of polished soccer, but was nevertheless a very enjoyable affair. This was evidenced by the keenness shown by the players on the field and also by the spectators alike which included many ladies.

The game which was played at a slow pace ended in a victory for the Exchange by four goals to one. Players one and all showed signs of fatigue in the early stages of the game due no doubt to the long absence from the playing fields. Several old-timers in the persons of R. M. Omar, S. A. Ismail and Ellis M. Joseph played up well for the winners while, O. el Arculli a young player bore the brunt of the defence work for the Exchange. C. N. da Silva another youngster played up well on the left wing and was well backed up by A. Gomes.

AT SIXES AND SEVENS

The losers were at sixes and sevens, their combination and understanding were lacking and but for the sterling work put in by A. A. R. Botelho they might have suffered a heavier defeat. Elmes and Carroll in the losers' forward line were hard workers but found little or no support from their team mates.

The Exchange opened the scoring through A. Gomes five minutes from the start, who snapping up a rebound shot off Silva's foot netted easily. The same player added another goal shortly before the interval.

After the interval the Sharebrokers came into the picture on several occasions but poor shooting robbed them of any chances of scoring. Midway through the second half Arculli took a free kick well out of the penalty area and scored easily. This was followed shortly after by another goal from Gomes.

The Sharebrokers undaunted by this reverse came back to the attack and was rewarded with a goal when Carroll scored from a rebound. The final whistle found the Exchange one more on the offensive.

At the conclusion of the game, the "Harriman Cup" donated by Mr. G. A. Harriman was presented by Mrs. Harriman, wife of the donor to the winners.

The teams were:—

Winchester, who have won the cup every year but one, will oppose the winners of the final in the challenge round.

Clifton, who have R. C. Rieley and Dr. A. M. Simpson, have reached the final, where they should meet Eton, who have R. Ald as first string. Lord Aberdare, R. H. Hill and N. F. H. Frendenthal play for the Old Wykehamists.

FEWER SHOTS AT BISLEY

There is controversy in the rifle-shooting world.

Noted riflemen, including winners of great events such as the King's Prize, have been organising a campaign against the proposal of the Council of the National Rifle Association to make important changes in the conditions of shooting at next July meeting.

The criticism will be delivered at a special general meeting of the shooting men on Friday.

The council's proposals, devised to save time and ammunition, are to make the big events which constitute the grand aggregate seven-shot instead of ten-shot; to abolish all practice shots; and to introduce two compulsory shots convertible at will.

BRITISH GOLFERS TO PLAY IN FRANCE.

BY E. M. WELLINGS

London, Feb. 25.

We are fast getting back to the "good old days" of golf. Professionals are, bitting at each other in challenge matches. And now seven players have been invited to take part in a tournament at Cannes.

Bill Cox, Alfred Padgham, Bert Hodson, Arthur Lacey, Arthur Havers, Allan Dalley and William Laidlaw are the adventurers.

They leave for France on Saturday, play in a seventy-two holes tournament at Cannes on March 4 and 5. The winner will receive 10,000 francs, about £150.

The south of France was once, many years ago, a happy hunting ground for the famous Harry Vardon.

There is no reason why it should not give one of these seven players an excellent start to what is destined to be the greatest professional season since the war.

Five of our representatives have played in the Ryder Cup match, while Allan Dalley showed himself to be in the great form during the Essex-Croydon Alliance match, and Laidlaw is one of the most promising of our assistant players.

Cox who rose to fame in the "Daily Mirror" assistants' tournament and is surely destined for world fame, is already in form. A score of eight under fours for thirty holes in winter is the form of a world-beater.

ENCOURAGEMENT FOR DAILEY

To Alfred Padgham this trip may do most good. He is not in the best health and is not now playing as we know he can. Dailey, too, is ill. He caught a chill on Saturday, when, incidentally, he defeated Padgham, and is in bed with a touch of bronchitis.

However, it is hoped that he will be able to go to France where his dolings will be eagerly watched by his Essex backers.

They are anxious to give him every encouragement this season. They hope he will recover his confidence, which has been sapped by continual lack of success since he won the Rochester tournament three years ago.

It was for this reason that they matched him in a 72 holes encounter with Alfred Ptry, the open champion. If he can recover his confidence, Dailey can be a great asset to British golf. He is a beautiful natural player.

If he has a weakness it is in the shots to the green from 140 yards. In other respects he is a polished performer, long and accurate with his woods and a splendid putter.

The dissatisfied marksmen will be able to provide that the conditions shall remain as last year. If they are defeated at the meeting they propose to take a postcard vote of members of the National Rifle Association throughout the country.

PERCY ALLISS ACCEPTS
POSTFrench Tennis
Player's Record

London, Feb. 11.
Percy Alliss, one of Britain's most famous golfers, and a member of the Ryder Cup team, has accepted the post of professional at the Leeds municipal course at Templenewsam.

Subject to confirmation by the City Council, he will take up his duties as soon as he can be released from his present position at Beaconsfield.

Alliss succeeds S. Wingate and his sister, Poppy Wingate, who had acted as joint professionals for many years. Alliss tells me that his new post should be worth at least £1,500 a year.

OVER 500 MEMBERS
Templenewsam, which has over 500 members, is one of the most enthusiastic golf centres in the North of England. In nine months of last year over 38,000 daily tickets were taken out—not including quarterly and half-yearly season tickets.

Before coming to Beaconsfield, where he has been for four years, Alliss was with the Wannsee Club, Berlin. He won the German open championship five times. One of the stylists of the game, his swing is reminiscent of that of Harry Vardon in his prime.

MARTIN LEGEAT'S
DISTINCTION

Andre Martin Legéat, who has scored several doubles victories in the Riviera tournaments, holds a unique record in the French ranking list, and his friends, Wallis Myers tells me, have been chaffing him about it.

He can call himself the first right-handed player in France, since the three players classified above him are all left-handed. These three—and their juxtaposition is really astonishing—are C. Bousquet, M. Bernard and J. Lesueur.

LEFT-HANDED CHAMPIONS

There has been no left-handed singles champion in France, but the title at Wimbledon has been won twice by Norman Brookes, of Australia, perhaps the greatest left hander of all.

He was a contemporary, by the way, of America's famous left-hander, Beals Wright, who beat Brookes in the Davis Cup both in England and in Australia.

Of left-handed pairs there have been relatively few. One of the best-known were the unrelated Powells (Kenneth and "R. B."), both killed in the War, who reached the final of the All-Comers doubles at Wimbledon in 1910. The donor of the Davis Cup, Dwight F. Davis, another Wimbledon doubles finalist, was a left hander—and the hardest smasher of all.

"FIVE CRICKETERS OF THE YEAR"

Once again it is the time of year when the cricket-lover begins to speculate as to the identity of the five players who will be honoured by having their portraits in "Wisden's."

There seem to be only two certainties this year—H. B. Cameron and Bruce Mitchell, of South Africa. My modest annual wager (and, let me confess, I have been a loser for some years) couples with them the names of E. R. T. Holmes, A. Mitchell, of Yorkshire, and the big-hitting Wellard.

HARVEY FIT AGAIN

After the Petersen-Harvey fight at Wembley there were many who predicted that Harvey was finished as regards the heavyweight title. Since then I have had a communication from Harvey, whose operation has been entirely successful.

He will be out of boxing for some time, of course, but he is feeling, at again already, though he has been ordered to rest for a few weeks.

Harvey is far from convinced that he lost to Petersen at their third meeting, and while I ignore boxers' claims in these matters as a rule, I feel bound to say that it would not surprise me were Petersen and the Cornishman to meet again in the open air during the summer.

LAST HORSE WINS

Here's a quaint racing tale from Germany. Four horses contested the Prix Farnen at Rheinhausen, and the horse that finished last won the race.

Two fought out a desperate finish, well in front of the others. As they passed the post, however, these were some trouble and both were disqualified.

Backers of the third horse were congratulating themselves on a stroke of luck when an objection

CHUNG SHING INSTITUTE

Graduates Receive Awards

The great hall of the Chinese Y.M.C.A. yesterday was crowded to full seating capacity when the Chung Shing Institute of Commerce held a pleasant function, in connection with the graduation of some fifty students, all of whom received various awards in connection with their examinations in type-writing and in the year. A total of sixty three students entered for the examinations, and the highest speed recorded by one of the participants was 58 words a minute. Ten students in all were awarded diplomas in connection with the commercial course.

Mr. Joseph Ng presided at the function, which was also attended by Dr. Lam Shing Fun, Ph. D., honorary president of the Institute, Mr. Peter H. Sin, Dr. Tsang Fook Chol, M.B., B.S., Dr. Chan Sing Chol, M.B., B.S., honorary members of the Board of Administration, and Mr. C. S. Kwok, director and founder of the Institute.

Mr. Ng, addressing the gathering at this, the 18th term of type-writing and the 7th term of commerce graduation function, extended a hearty welcome to all, and said that the mere presence of such distinguished persons as the honorary president and members of the board of administration, all of whom were well-known in the legal, banking and medical professions, testified to the kindly interest that they took in the work of the Institute.

DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Before calling on Mr. Peter Sin to distribute the awards to the successful candidates, Mr. Kwok, founder of the Institute said:

This Institute, founded in 1929 with the aim of giving an educational training in the mechanisms of typewriting, completed its 7th year in 1935, during which period 18 terms of typewriting and seven terms of commercial courses have been held, and over 1,000 graduates are to-day to be found holding responsible positions in business firms of the Colony have passed through the threshold of the Institute.

From a small beginning of six students on the roll, it has now grown to a community of 215, of whom 78 are taking up Commercial Full Course, 89 are specializing in Typewriting, 30 in English and the rest in either Book-keeping, Shorthand or Japanese, etc. The steady increase of roll in the middle of 1935 made it necessary to look for a more spacious building, and eventually the Institute was removed from 21 Wyndham Street to its present premises No. 2 Glenallyn on 1st August, 1935.

At the terminal examination held on January 2, 12 sat for Commerce, 6 passed the Full Course and 4 qualified for the prescribed course diplomas. 14 sat for the Senior Typewriting, and 7 passed; 37 sat for the Junior Typewriting, and 33 passed. Alice Ma with a speed of 58 words per minute secured the first place in the Senior Typewriting, while in the Junior the first place was won by Master Wong Yung Bw with a speed of 47 words per minute.

An external examination held under the auspices of the Institute of Commerce, England, took place in this institute, its official examination centre in Hong Kong. About 30 candidates sat for the examination. At the moment of writing this report, the results have not yet come to hand.

There has been very little change on the teaching staff which is composed of Messrs. Y. C. Li, A.A., H. T. Li, (Hong Kong Maritime), R. Young, B.A., and Mrs. M. O. Fisher, Ph. D., B.Sc., M.A. Much successful teaching must be accredited to them, and I wish to thank them publicly for their loyalty and application.

THE ARMY

Battalion Commanders

London, Feb. 25.

Major E. B. Hawkins, D.S.O., O.B.E., has been selected for command of the 2nd Battalion, The West Yorkshire Regiment (The Prince of Wales's Own), in succession to Lieutenant-Colonel H. F. C. Hobbs, whose tenure expired on Sunday.

Major J. S. Fulton, O.B.E., M.C., has been selected for command of the 2nd Battalion, The Lancashire Fusiliers, in succession to Lieutenant-Colonel T. Slingsby, M.C., whose tenure expired yesterday.

Major Hawkins has been some time with the 2nd Battalion, The West Yorkshire Regiment, which he joined in 1909. Three years later he was with the 4th Uganda Battalion. He was in the column operations against the Dodinga tribe, and continued with The King's African Rifles up to 1920. Later he commanded the 1st Nyassaland Battalion in the Southern Nigeria Brigade. He came home in 1931 to command his regimental depot at York.

Major Fulton has been with the 1st Battalion, The Lancashire Fusiliers, the 2nd Battalion of which is coming home from Palestine. He has served since 1910, and has been adjutant of the 2nd Battalion in India, specially employed at the War Office, and Military Control Officer at Bristol and Avonmouth. He was on the staff of the 25th and 88th Divisions in France, where he was wounded and twice decorated.

T. A. ARTILLERY

Major E. T. Turner has been selected for command of the 52nd (Manchester) Field Brigade, Royal Artillery, Territorial Army, in succession to Lieutenant-Colonel C. F. Morgan, M.C., whose tenure expired on February 17.

Major Turner is commanding the 208th (East Lancashire) Field Battery in Manchester and was with the 207th as a captain. He got his majority in 1928. His War service was on the Western Front, where he was wounded. The retiring O.C., Lieutenant-Colonel Morgan, commanded the 206th Battery and was two years in France.

COMMISSIONS IN THE R.A.M.C.

The War Office announces that applications are invited from medical men for appointments to commissions in the Royal Army Medical Corps. Candidates will be selected for commissions without competitive examination, and will be required to present themselves in London for interview and physical examination on or about April 23. They must be registered under the Medical Acts and normally must not be over the age of 28 years. Successful candidates will first be given short-service commissions for five years, at the end of which period they must either retire with a gratuity of £1,000 or apply for a permanent commission. Permanent commissions will be given to officers selected from among those who wish to make the Army their permanent career. Full particulars of the conditions of service and emoluments, also forms of application, may be obtained on application either by letter or in person to the Assistant Director-General, Army Medical Services, the War Office, London, S.W.1.

Ming, Tam Wai Sang, Chu Ping Kwan, Li Wing Shu, Chan Shun Kai.

Senior—Alice Ma, Nguyen Van Hoa, Leung Fung Yee, Li Hou Wing, Tse Hon Chung, Cisse Ma, Wong Shiu Bun.

7th Term Commercial Course: Full Course Diploma:—Wong Chung Hoi, Ng Sik Leung, San Chung Ming, Fung Boa Ying, Chui Chi Cheong, Wong Kim Wai.

Described Course Diploma:—Alice Ma, Lee Kwok Fan, Fung Wai Man, Kwik Peng Tiong.

Prizes Winners:—Alice Ma, Wong Yung Paw, Wong Chung Hoi, Lee Hin Poh, Fung Boa Ying, Chan Kwai Wah.

Souvenirs of the occasion were presented to Mr. P. H. Sin, Dr. S. F. Lam, and Dr. F. C. Tsang, all of whom addressed the gathering expressing gratitude for the splendid work that the Institute fulfilled.

Musical items were rendered by the students and their friends during the evening, a high light of the function being a demonstration of typewriting given by the students on the stage.

A nominee of the students, Mr. Lee Kim Po spoke on their behalf and thanked the Institute for the thorough training afforded during their term of learning.

MR. THOMAS PROMISES VIGOROUS ACTION

Action At Once

London, Feb. 20.

In the House of Commons yesterday, Mr. Lunn (Lab.—Rothwell) asked the Colonial Secretary if he was aware that the committee which recently reported on multi-racial in Hong Kong declared that the sale of girls was an undesirable practice, but that any attempt to stop the practice was doomed to failure, and if he accepted this declaration or adhered to the policy of recent Governments in Great Britain, who had all declared in favour of its abolition.

Mr. J. H. Thomas (Nat. Lab.—Colonial Secretary) replied that he had seen the report. He agreed emphatically that the sale of girls was undesirable, and he did not accept the view that it was impossible to suppress the practice in countries under our jurisdiction. The multi-racial system was illegal in Hong Kong, and it had been the policy of our Government for years past, to secure its final disappearance. "The policy is one that I intend to pursue vigorously, and I am taking every step towards that end now."

Mr. Bellenger (Lab.—Bassetlaw): What steps are the Government taking to ensure the disappearance of this system?

Mr. Thomas: The system of inspectors and prosecutions, I have looked into the prosecutions, and find there are too many fines. I should like to see imprisonment.

SCOT WHO SAVED TWO LOST EXPLORERS

Honour For The Master Of Discovery II.

London, Feb. 15.

According to an official announcement issued from Downing Street yesterday, the King has approved that Lieutenant Leonard Charles Hill, R.N.R., the Scottish master of the R.R.S. Discovery II, be appointed an officer of the Civil Division of the Order of the British Empire for his services in connection with the search in the Antarctic for Mr. Lincoln Ellsworth and Mr. Herbert Hollick-Kenyon. The royal research ship Discovery II was on her fourth voyage to the Antarctic in December, when she was ordered to join in the search for the missing airman, who had not been seen since they flew off from Dundee Island on November 23.

On January 16 a coded cablegram was received in London from Discovery II. It stated: "Arrived safely Bay of Whales on January 15. One man sighted from 'plaque', also a machine at Little America." On the following day came the dramatic message: "Ellsworth and Kenyon alive and well."

BORN IN GLASGOW

Later despatches told how a tent had been seen on the face of a barrier in the Bay of Whales, and how a search party found Kenyon coming over the ice to meet them, and later discovered Ellsworth. Both men were taken back to the ship.

Lieutenant Hill, who was in executive command of Discovery II, played a great part in effecting the rescue.

Lieutenant Hill is 27 and is single. He was born in Glasgow, and went to school at Clydebank High School and the Royal Technical College, Glasgow. He served as a junior officer in the a.s. Empire.

After R.N.R. training in H.M.S. Iron Duke and in submarines and a surveying course in H.M.S. Fitzroy, he was appointed to the Discovery Committee staff in November, 1933, as fourth officer in Discovery II. He was promoted third officer and then chief officer and master in August, 1935.

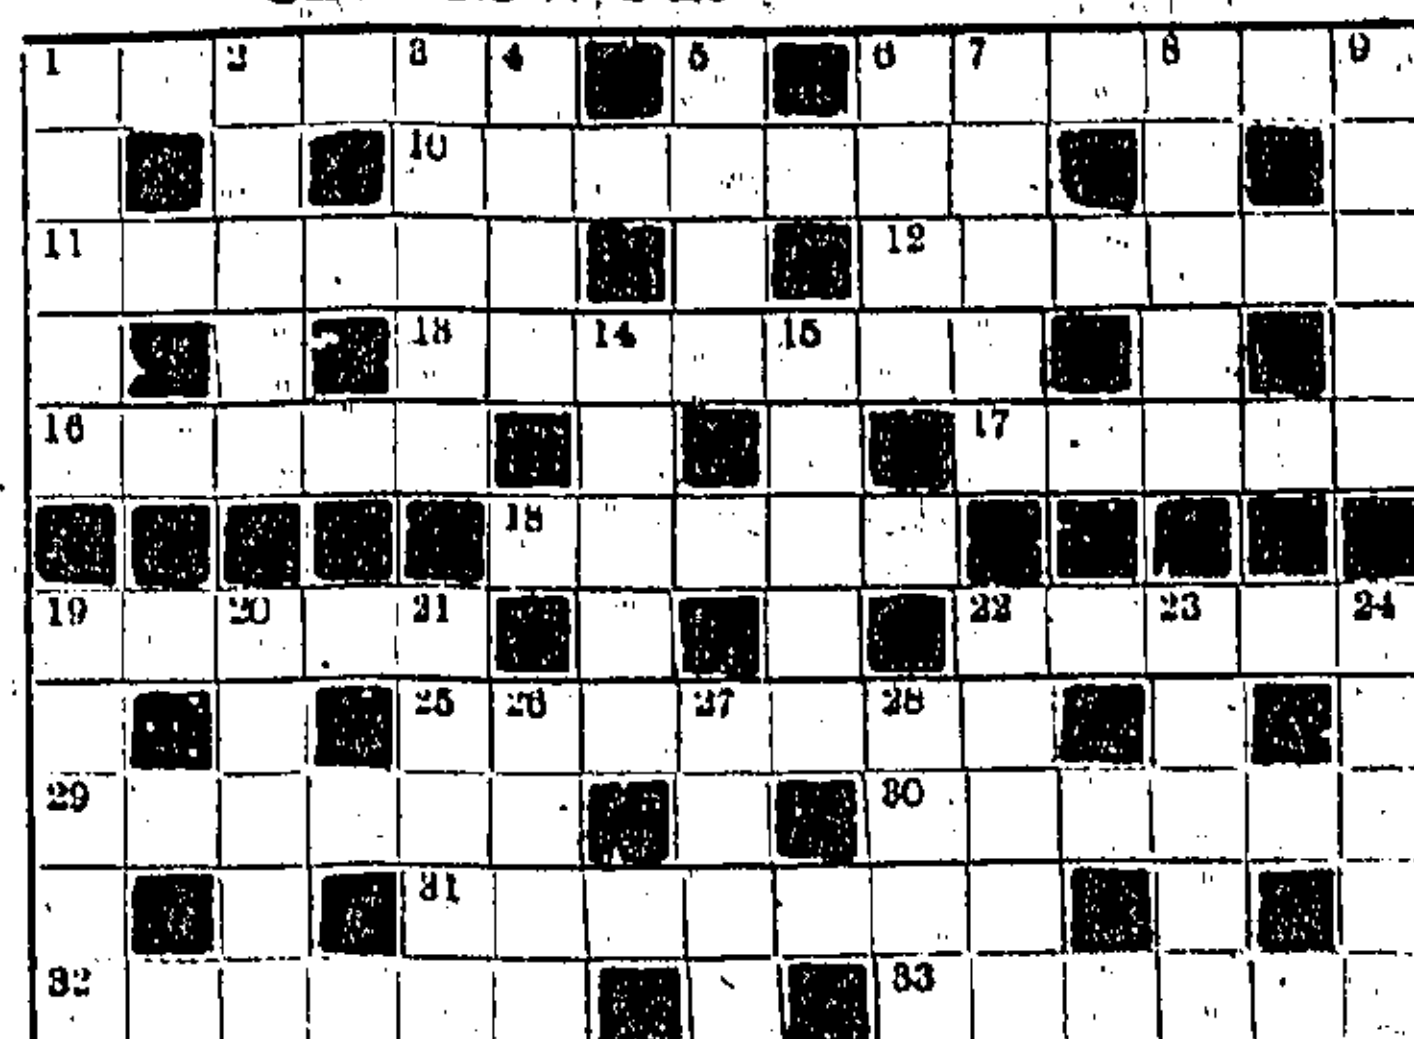

AIR MAIL RECORD: 10,000 MILES; 12 DAYS

London, Feb. 25.

A new air mail record was set up yesterday when mails from Hong Kong and Shanghai were landed at Croydon Airport by an Air France machine. They had travelled 10,000 miles in twelve days.

The mails left Shanghai on February 13, were flown by the China Air Service to Hankow, and there passed on to the Air France service. The service has been in operation for twelve months, and steps are being taken to speed it up still more.

EXCHEQUER RETURNS

London, Mar. 10.

Receipts into the Exchequer last week, apart from the self-balancing revenue, amounted to the exceptionally high total of £22,532,882, and the expenditure for week, excluding the self-balancing items, was £24,549,443.

The financial year ends in three weeks, and special interest attaches to the latest Treasury return, which shows on the revenue side that the total ordinary revenue for the financial year up to March 7, amounted to £2,690,121,420. This was £26,795,168 more than at the corresponding date last year.

The Budget estimated the ordinary revenue for the full year at £734,470,000. The total ordinary expenditure to date is £704,128,959. At the corresponding date last year, the figure was £674,715,999.

The budget estimated a total ordinary expenditure for the year at £754,571,600.—

U.S. SILVER POLICY

Bill To Stimulate Purchase

Washington, Mar. 10.

A Bill designed to stimulate Treasury silver purchases has been introduced in the Senate by Senator Thomas, proposing the retirement of all United States notes outstanding and the issuance in exchange of an equal amount of silver certificates.

The silver purchased for this purpose would not be counted as part of the silver which the authorities purchased under the Silver Purchase Act.

Simultaneously, the proposal by the Senate Agricultural Committee requiring Treasury purchase of at least 50,000,000 ounces monthly until a silver-gold ratio of 16 to 1, or silver stocks one-third of the gold stocks, is reached, has been favorably reported by the Committee. This proposal is sponsored by Senator Wheeler, and it represents a revival of the earlier efforts to secure free coinage of silver.

Observers are of the opinion that the Administration is not inclined to consider further silver legislation this session, as specified in the operation of the silver programme. At the same time, the split amongst the silverites appears to make impossible sufficient pressure to force legislation.—

£10,000,000 ARMS ORDER FOR FRANCE

Roumanian Contract As Result Of Trade Treaty

London, Feb. 14.

Roumania has ordered £10,000,000 of armaments from France, it was reported in Paris yesterday.

The order is placed under the Franco-Roumanian trade pact recently signed in Paris.

The principal aim of the treaty is to provide Roumania with a sufficient quantity of francs to furnish payments for £10,000,000 of armaments, interest on Roumanian loans issued on the Paris market, and overdue instalments of commercial debts.

Roumania has consented to hand over three-quarters of the State levy in kind on Roumanian petro-

BERLIN SHARE MARKET

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Berlin, Mar. 10.

The sharemarket was in a buying mood on Tuesday so that a price sag was in evidence, but on Monday it disappeared, all stocks being markedly firm. Banks orders were however not numerous so that the turnover was not normal. Fixed interest securities market was stagnant, but Reichs old liquidation loan crumbled to 110 3/8. Call Money rose from 2 1/2 to 3, Young Loan stood unchanged at 102 7/8. Reichsbanks rose 1 to 185, Dreyfus went firmer at 151, Salzgitter Potash was unquoted, also on Monday, United Steelworks rose 1 to 81 3/8, German Mineral Oils advanced 2 to 108 1/2, Siemenshalske was unchanged at 187 and Bernberg Rayon dropped 1 to 90.—

REICHSBANK RETURN

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Berlin, Mar. 10.

The Reichsbank return dated March 7 issued on Tuesday showed Goldstock was unchanged at 71.7, the foreign division reserves went 0.1 lower to 5.4, making a total note cover decline of 0.1 to 77.1 million reichsmarks. Note circulation decreased by 188.6 to 3888.1 million reichsmarks. The amount of credit issued as measured by bills advanced and cheque investments declined by 252.2 to 4552.3 million reichsmarks.—
